TO THE HONOVRABLE
AND
True-hearted lover of his Countrey, Sir HENRY VANE Junior, Knight, ſometimes Governour of New-England; Treaſurer of the Navie Royall, and a Member of the Houſe of COMMONS.

Sir,

THE Churches of the Saints and the World, may not bee unfitly compared to the Pearle and the Pebble: though both of one naturall ſubſtance, earth; yet the one of rare price, whoſe beauty is the ſunbeames incloſed; the other wanting it, 1 Cor. 14. 13 it, is caſt away as refuſe. What maketh the Saint more excellent then his neighbour, ſeeing both are borne of fleſh, both ſubject to the ſame corruptions, ſickneſſe, death, but this? The Saints excellency is Epheſ. 4. 24 nothing elſe but the Image of Jeſus Chriſt the Sunne of righteouſneſſe ſhining in him: For as the moone and ſtarres derive their light from the ſunne; ſo all the wiſdome, righ-declareth to Nicodemus that a beleevers holineſſe cometh from regeneration; that in Chriſt hee may onely glory. How doth the Lord diſcover this his excellency to a beleever, by his calling, till that time hee lieth amongſt the refuſe of the world, as fooliſh, diſobedient, deceived, ſerving divers luſts and pleaſures, living in malice and envie, hatefull, and hating one another. But then the kindneſſe and love of God to man appeared, by delivering him out of the kingdome of darkneſſe, and tranſlating him into the kingdome of his deare Sonne. By which it is manifeſt, that hee is one of the choſen generation, the royall prieſthood, the holy nation, the peculiar people, whom hee hath called out of darkneſſe into his marvellous light. But when doth the Lord diſcover the truth of his calling to his conſcience? Then when hee giveth him precious faith; for that onely diſtinguiſheth him from the world that lieth in ſinne. Gal. 3.

Thus the love of Chriſt revealed to dye for him, to take away his iniquity, and reconcile him to God; the Spirit given to take away his heart of ſtone, giveth him an heart of fleſh, to cauſe to walke in his ſtatutes; yea, and draweth his heart to yeeld obedience to every commandement of Jesus the Christ. The truth of this grace given, Right Worshipfull, you can give a true testimoniall; for you were once in your naturall condition as well as others, till it pleased God who separated you from the womb, to call you by his grace, Gal. 1. 15, 16. to reveale his Sonne in you; you consulted not with flesh and bloud, but left your native soyle, (in the persecuting times of the Prelates) chusing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God (according to the light they had received) then to remaine in England and enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season. Heb. 11. 26 Yet there the Lord exalted your Worship to bee the Governour: And in that dawning light, coming forth out of mysticall Babylon, the Lord discovered much spirituall knowledge, of the riches of his free-grace in Jesus Christ, amongst you; you being freed from the yoke of the Task-

Masters heere, the Bishops, that kept you in bondage: you had liberty there to debate those Questions; which the naming onely of them heere, would have rendred a man odious. But Satan that envieth the peace of the Saints; stirred up a spirit of contention amongst you; especially when these Queries came to be debated.

1 Whether there are any gracious conditions, or qualifications wrought in the soule before faith?
2 Whether any man can gather his evidence of the assurance of his Justification from his Sanctification?
3 Whether there bee an active power of Faith, and other gifts of grace in a Christian conversation?

The one side would not beleeve themselves justified, no farther then they could see themselves worke; making their Markes, Signes, and Quallifi-

Qualifications, the cauſes of their Juſtification.

The other ſide, laid the Evidence of their Juſtification, onely by Faith in the free Promiſe: for there are foure things that makes remiſſion of ſinnes perpetuall to a beleever.

Firſt, The cauſe of Remiſſion, the ſacrificed Body of Chriſt on the Croſſe, or accurſed Tree; Heb. 10. 4. By one offering, hee hath perfected for ever them that are ſanctified.

Secondly, The ground is a free promiſe tendred to us from God; as to Adam, The Seed of the Woman ſhall breake the Serpents head, Gen. 3. 15. John. 3. 16. 1 John 4. 10.

Thirdly, The meane is, Faith apprehending it, Phil. 3. 9.

Fourthly, The Spirit of Chriſt ſealing of it, Epheſ. 1. 13.

This truth revealed for the comfort of poore drooping Saints found great oppoſition; But the good Lord, ſtirred up your gracious ſpirit, to countenance, and defend them them in the midst of strong opposition; and though you were sleighted, and set light by at the ende of your Government, as not worthy to be an assistant, with many other Instruments more; yet the good Lord stood by you, and strengthned you, and delivered you from the hands of your opposers, perserved you from the dangers of the Sea; and though at your returne to your Native Soyle, you lived like Joseph, a while, in a despised condition, yet the Lord raised you up to sit amongst Princes. So that though you were willing to lose life, friends, preferment, for Christ; found you not then, life, peace, joy, in the Lord Jesus, which was better to you, then all worldly amity; according to his owne promise, In the World you found affliction, but in him you found peace: And when you were called to be a Member of the high Court of Parliament, in our distressed and distra-

ſted times; the Lord made you an inſtrument to detect the Trecherous plot of thoſe two brethren in evill; Thomas Lord Strafford; and William Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, that contrived the deſtruction of our fundamentall Lawes, ratified by the Statute of Magna Charta, by labouring to ſet up an Arbitrary Government, and keeping on foot a Poliſh Army, conſiſting of Iriſh Rebels, and others, to compell the faithfull, and true-hearted Nobility, and loyall Commons of England, to ſubject themſelves to their illegal Taxations: hazarding the loſſe of the favours of the King, Nobility, Parents, Friends, and Allyes, together with thoſe places of Honour and Maintenance, the King of Clemency had freely beſtowed; rather then his Countrey ſhould be ruined, and enthralled, by ſuch accurſed Incendiaries. Shall this thy love (moſt noble Senatour) who art a branch of that goodly Cædar, under whose shade, the Innocent and oppressed, tender Consciences that stand for a through Reformation, agreeable to the Word of God, find rest) ever be forgotten, and left unrewarded; God forbid: It is worthy to be written on a Pillar of Marble; and recorded in the Chronicle: that after-ages may never forget to shew kindenesse, and mercy to your Noble Posterity that did not thinke your life (together with your neerest relations deare unto you, so as to part with them, that you might purchase your Countries Liberty; I cannot judge him Englands Friend, that envies your honour, and promotion; Seeing you are (for the love you have shewed to Christ his Truth, and poore Members, together with your Native Countrey) worthy of double honour. Now (worthy Sir) seeing all your excellency is nothing else, but he Image of Jeſus Chriſt, the Son of righteouſnes ſhining in you. Diſdain not to receive from the hand of a poore deſpiſed Inſtrument that preſents this Treatiſe, The Learned Conference of Maſter John Cotton, that he had with the Elders, at the Bay of Boſton in New England. Though I am the leaſt of all Saints, not worthy to be called a Saint; becauſe in the time of the Prelats raigne; I ſided with them, in perſecuting the Faith of Jeſus Chriſt, and impriſoning of his Members; But did it ignorantly, through unbeliefe, and when the Lord pierced my heart for it; I trembling, cryed, What ſhall I doe? The holy Spirit and the Bride ſaid, Repent, and bee baptized in the name of Jeſus, for the remiſſion of ſinnes, and I ſhould receive the gifts of the Spirit, &c. Then Noble Sir, although I procraſtinated it for a ſeaſon, at laſt, I was not diſobedient to the heavenly voice, but aroſe, and was Baptized; For this cauſe, have beene much oppoſed by my old Friends, and Countrey-men. But yet remaine a Loyall Covenanter, that ſtandeth for a Reformation in England, and Ireland, agreeable to the Word of God, and the beſt Reformed Churches: Seeing it is not the voice of the Churches, but Chriſt in the Churches we Covenented to hearken unto; as Maſter Caſe his Sermon yet teſtifieth.

Firſt, To extirpate Popery; (which I apprehended at the taking of the Nationall Covenant) was that Doctrine of Antichriſt, which doth univerſally oppoſe the doctrine of Jeſus the Chriſt. Affirming what Chriſt denieth; and denying what Chriſt affirmeth.

Secondly, Prelacy, viz. The Government of Arch-biſhops, and Biſhops, and all Eccleſiaſticall Officers depending on that Hierarchy,

Roote

Roote and Branch: as a Plant the heavenly Father hath not planted.

Thirdly, Superſtition: viz. Whatſoever is ſupra Statutum, that hath not the word of God to warrant it.

Fourthly, Schiſme: Namely, from all thoſe that teach, and conſent not to the wholeſome words, even the words of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and to the doctrine which is according to godlineſſe; from ſuch I muſt withdraw, 1 Tim. 6. 3, 5.

Fifthly, Hereſie: Even from all them that deny that Jeſus is the Chriſt; They are Antichriſt that deny the Father and the Sonne. Whoſoever denyeth the Sonne, the ſame hath not the Father, 1 Joh. 2. 22, 23.

Sixthly, That the Lord may be one: viz. Even the Lord Jeſus the Chriſt, whom God raiſed from the dead, and ſet him at his owne right hand in the heavenly places; Farre above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, dominion, and every name that is named, not onely in this world, but that which is to come: And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the Church, Which is his body, the fulneſſe of him that filleth all in all, Epheſ. 1. 20, 21 22, 23.

Seventhly, And his Name to be one in the three Kingdomes: (that is, as I conceive it) his power, authority, and royall Commiſſion muſt be exalted in all his Offices, to be the eternall King, eternall Prophet, and eternall Prieſt, in all things appertaining to the conſcience: ſee-ing the loyall Spouſe of Chriſt hath no Head, no Husband, no Lord, no Law-giver, but royall King Je-ſus.

That wee, and our poſterity after us, may live in faith, and love; and the Lord may delight to dwell amongſt us.

For

For the keeping of which Covenant, I had rather chuſe to dye, then to deny the faith of Jeſus the Chriſt: Knowing, that he which confeſſeth him before men, him he will confeſſe before his Father. But hee which is aſhamed of Chriſt, and his words, in this ſinfull and adulterous generation, of him alſo ſhall the Sonne of man bee aſhamed, when hee cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy Angels, Mar. 8. 38. Thus I deſire, in the firſt place, to give to God the things that are Gods; Mat 22.21 and, in the next place, render to the high and honourable Court of Parliament, whereof your Honour is a Member, and to your King, when the Lord ſhall put it into his heart to returne unto his Parliament, and to joyne with you, all your dues, tributes, cuſtomes, feare, Rom.13.7. honour; and ſubject my ſelfe to obey all your juſt, legall, and civill commandements: Knowing, that you ſet not up the Sword for 1 Pet. 2. 14 nought; but to be a terrour to them that doe evill, and a praiſe, a guard and defenſe, for them that doe well.

Your poore Oratour at the throne of grace, that earneſtly prayeth, that the Lord will give you, and the great Councell of the Kingdome, wiſdome and prudence, to beare with tender Conſciences, that deſire to exalt Jeſus the Chriſt in all his Royall Offices,

For this cause alone, I have attempted* empted (Courteous Reader) to preſent to thy view this Learned Treatiſe; Not that I have any relation to that Learned man; nor any command from him to doe it: But onely in love, that this his Learned Diſputation might not bee buried in ſilence. Read it therefore (Beloved in Chriſt) not for his ſake that publiſheth it; but for his ſake that was the Author of it; or rather for the God of Truths ſake. For whoſe cauſe the Learned Author contendeth for the Faith in theſe daies, wherein the Goſpell of Truth hath ſuffered ſo great Eclipſes, through the rage and tyranny of the Popiſh Antichriſtian Prelates and Prieſts.

Thine that earneſtly deſireth to exalt the Lord Jeſus the Chriſt, in all his royall Offices

FRAN. CORNWELL.

A Conference that Mr. IOHN COTTON had with the Elders of the Congregations in New-England, touching three Questions that are here discussed on:

1. Touching gracious conditions, or qualifications, wrought in the soule before faith.
2. Touching the gathering of our first evident assurance of our faith from sanctification.
3. Touching the active power of faith, and other spirituall gifts of grace in a Christian conversation.

The first Question.

WHether there be any gracious conditions, or qualifications, in the soule before faith, of dependance unto which, such promises are made? Quest. 1.

Wee deny it, for these reasons.

Reas. 1. If there be any gracious conditions, or qualifications, wrought in us before faith of dependance; then, before wee receive union with Christ: The reason is,

For by faith of dependance it is, that wee first received union with Jesus Christ, Joh. 1. 12.

But there be no gracious conditions wrought in us before wee received union with Jesus Christ;

Therefore there bee no gracious conditions, or qualifications, wrought in us before faith of dependance.

Minor.

If wee cannot bring forth good fruit, till wee be good trees, nor become good trees, untill wee be grafted or united unto Jesus Christ; then there can be no gracious conditions, or qualifications wrought in us, before wee receive union with Christ.

But wee cannot bring forth good fruit, fruit, till wee become good trees; nor become trees of righteouſneſſe, untill wee be grafted into Jeſus Chriſt;

Therefore there bee no gracious conditions, or qualifications wrought in us, before we received union with Jeſus Chriſt.

The Propoſition is cleare of it ſelfe, that wee cannot bring forth good fruit, untill we be good trees: *Mat.*7.18. A corrupt tree cannot bring forth good fruit. Nor can we become the good trees of righteouſneſſe, of the Lords plantation, *Iſai.*61.3. untill wee be grafted into Chriſt. *Joh.*15.4. As the branch cannot beare fruit of it ſelfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can yee, except yee abide in me. Verſe 5. I am the vine, yee are the branches; hee that abideth in me, and I in him, the ſame bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can doe nothing.

A ſecond proofe of the Minor.

If there be any gracious conditions, or qualifications wrought in us before union with Christ, then we may be in a state of grace and salvation, before we be in Christ: But that cannot be: Acts 4. 12. Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given amongst men, whereby wee may be saved.

Reas. 2. If there be any gracious condition or qualification in us before faith, then there may be something in us pleasing unto God before faith:

But there is nothing in us pleasing unto God before faith; Heb. 11. 6. But without faith it is impossible for us to please him: for hee that cometh to God, must beleeve that hee is, and that hee is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Object. But there must be some saving preparatives wrought in the soule, to make way for faith, and our union with Christ. For wee must be cut off from the old Adam, before

wee can be grafted into the new: Wee must be dead to the first husband, before we can be married unto another.

To works of creation there needeth no preparation; the almighty power of God calleth them to be his people, that were not his people, 1 Pet. 2. 10. And by calling them to be so, hee maketh them to bee so. Rom. 9. 25, 26. As hee saith in Hosea, I will call them, My people, which were not my people; and her, Beloved, which was not beloved. Verse 26. And it shall come to passe that in the place where it is said unto them, Yee are not my people, there shall they be called, The children of the living God. Answ. 1.

While Satan, the strong man, keepeth the house, Christ the stronger cometh upon him, and bereaveth him of his armour, and divideth the spoyle, Luke 11. 21, 22. 2.

Wee are dead to our first husband. the Law by the body of Christ, Rom. 7. 4. and therefore it is 3.

by the vertue of Christs death we have fellowship with Christ; and that giveth the deadly stroak unto our first husband.

The second Question.

Quest. 2. Whether a man may evidence his justification by his sanctification?

The state of the Question is thus unfolded.

First, To take a mans sanctification, for an evident cause or ground of his justification, is flat Popery.

Secondly, To take a mans sanctification, for an evident cause or ground of that faith whereby hee is justified, is utterly unsafe; for faith is built upon Jesus, the Christ, the head corner stone, Ephes. 2. 20. Mat. 16. 16. and not upon works: A good work floweth from faith not faith from them.

Thirdly

Thirdly, To take common sanctification, that is, such a reformation and a change of life as floweth from a spirit of bondage, restraining from sin, and constraining unto duty, and sometimes accompanied with enlargement and comforts in duty; yet without the sense and feeling of the need of Christ, and before union with him, to take such a sanctification for an evident signe of justification, is to build upon a false and sandy foundation.

Fourthly, That when a man hath first attained assurance of his faith, of his justification, by the witnesse of the Spirit of Christ, in a free promise of grace, made to him in the bloud of Christ, Acts 13.38,39. hee may discern, and take his sanctification as a secondary witnesse, or an evident signe or effect of his justification.

The Question being thus stated, I propound the Question thus;

Whether a man may gather the first evidence or assurance of his faith, of his justification, by his sanctification?

Wee hold in the Negative part.

The first Argument.

As Abraham came to the first assurance of his justification, so wee, and all that beleeve, as Abraham did; for hee is made a patterne to us in point of justification: Rom. 4. 23. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; V. 24. But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we beleeve on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead. V. 25. Who was delivered for our offences, and raised againe for our justification.

But Abraham came to his first assurance of his sanctification, not from any promise made thereunto, but from a free promise of grace; Rom. 4. 18. Who against hope, beleeved in hope, that hee might become the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. V. 19. And being not weak in faith,

he considered not his own body now dead, when he was above an hundred yeares old; neither the deadnesse of Sarahs wombe. Vers. 20. He staggered not at the promise of God through unbeliefe, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God. Vers. 21. And being fully perswaded that what hee had promised hee was able to performe: Vers. 22. And therefore it was imputed unto him for righteousnesse.

The promise was absolute, and free, So shall thy seed be as the stars of heaven: this hee beleeved with full assurance of faith, resting onely on the faithfulnesse and grace, and power of him that promised, Rom. 4. 21.

Therefore wee, and all the children of Abraham, come to our first assurance of our Justification, not from our Sanctification, or from any promise made thereunto; but from the free promise of grace.

The second Arguwent.

No man can take his assurance of the faith of his Iustification: But as God will declare and pronounce him righteous in Christ Iesus.

But God will not declare, and pronounce us righteous in Christ, upon the sight and evidence of our sanctification.

Therefore we cannot take the assurance of the faith of our Iustification, from the sight and evidence of our sanctification.

The Assumption is proved thus.

If God justifieth us (that is) declareth, and pronounceth us to bee righteous, he doth then declare his owne righteousnesse, that he might be just; Then he doth not declare us to be righteous in Christ, upon the sight and evidence of our sanctification, which is a righteousnesse of our owne.

But when God justifieth us, that is, first declareth us, and pronounceth us to be righteous, he doth declare his owne righteousnesse; that he might be just.

There

Therefore he doth not firſt pronounce and declare us righteous upon ſight, and evidence of our ſanctification, which is a righteouſneſſe of our owne.

The proofe of the Propoſition.

It will not ſtand with the righteouſneſſe of God to declare and pronounce a man juſt, upon the ſight of ſuch an imperfect righteouſneſſe, as our beſt ſanctification is: And therefore when God declareth, and pronounceth us righteous; He doth it not upon any ſight of any ſanctification, or righteouſneſſe of ours: But onely upon the ſight of the perfect righteouſneſſe of Chriſt imputed unto us.

The proofe of the Aſſumption.

That when God juſtifieth us (that is, when he firſt declareth, and pronounceth us to be righteous) he doth declare his own righteouſneſſe, that he might be juſt, as Paul ſpeaketh, Rom. 3. 26. and the juſtifier of him, which beleeveth on Jeſus.

And

And it is the speech of David, that when God declareth himselfe to bee just; hee declareth onely the sinnefulnesse of the Creature, *Psal.*51.4.

The third Argument.

If the promise be made sure of God unto faith out of grace; Then it is not first made sure to faith out of works.

But the promise is made sure of God to faith out of grace, *Rom.*4.5. to him that worketh not, but beleeveth on him, that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousnesse.

Therefore the promise is not made sure to faith out of works.

From the opposition of Grace, and Works, *Rom.*11.6 And if by grace then it is no more of workes; otherwise grace is no more grace.

Gal. The opposition standeth not onely betweene grace and workes, but beweene grace and the merits of works; now no man ascribeth the assuassurance of faith in the promise to the merits of works.

Answ. The opposition standeth not only betweene grace and the merits of works: but between grace and the debt due to workes; For so the Apostle Paul expresseth it, Rom. 4. 4. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

If the assurance of faith of our justification, doe spring from sight of sanctification, it is by right of some promise made unto such a worke, and the right which a man hath by promise to a worke, maketh the assurance of the promise, but debt unto him: and then the promise is not sure unto him out of grace.

The fourth Argument.

If when the Lord declareth himselfe pacified toward us, he utterly shames us, and confounds us, in the sight and sense of our unworthynesse, and unrighteousnesse; then he doth not give unto us our first assurance rance of the faith of our justification, upon the sight and sense of sanctification.

But when the Lord declareth himself pacified towards us, he doth utterly ashame us, and confound us, in the sight and sense of our unworthynesse, and unrighteousnesse.

Therefore he doth not first give us assurance of the faith of our justification, upon the sight and sense of our sanctification.

The consequence is plaine from the Law of Contraries: For, if the Lord shame us with a sight and sense of sinne; hee doth not then, first comfort and incourage us, with the sight and sense of sanctification.

Minor is proved, Ezek. 16. 63. Rom. 4. 5.

Ezek. 16. 63. That thou maist remember and bee confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame; when I am pacified toward thee, for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God. Rom.

Rom 4.5. To him that worketh not, but beleeveth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is acccounted for righteousnesse.

The fift Argument.

When sanctification is not evident, it cannot be an evidence of justification.

But when Justification is hidden, and doubtfull, Sanctification is not evident.

Therefore Sanctification cannot be our first evidence of Justification.

Minor.

When Faith is hidden and doubtfull, Sanctification is not evident:

But when Justification is hidden and doubtfull, Faith is hidden and doubtfull.

Therefore when Justification is hidden and doubtfull, Sanctification is not evident.

The first proofe of the Major.

If Faith be the evidence of things not seene, then when Faith it selfe is hidden and doubtfull, which maketh keth all things evident, what can be cleare unto us.

But Faith is the evidence of things not seene, Hebr. 11. 1.

Therefore when Faith it selfe is hidden and doubtfull, Sanctification cannot be evident.

The second proofe of the Major.

If no Sanctification be true and sincere, but when it is wrought in faith: then neither can it be evident. But when it evidently appeareth to bee wrought in Faith: Therefore when Faith is hidden, and doubtfull, Sanctification cannot be evident.

But no Sanctification is pure and sincere, but when it is wrought in Faith: nor cannot be evident, but when it evidently appeareth to bee wrought in Faith.

Therefore when Faith is hidden and doubtfull, Sanctification cannot be evident.

The sixth Argument.

Such a Faith as a practicall Sillogisme can make, is not a Faith wrought wrought by the Lords Almighty power: For though Sillogismus fidem facit, yet such a faith is but an humane faith; because the Conclusion followeth but from the strength of reasonings, or reason, not from the power of God, by which alone Divine things are wrought, Ephes. 1. 19. 20. Col. 2. 20.

But the Faith which is wrought by a word, and a worke, and the light of a renewed Conscience without the witnesse of the spirit, and before it, is such a Faith as a practicall Sillogisme can make.

Therefore such a Faith as is wrought by a word, and a worke, or by the light of a renewed Conscience, without the witnesse of the Spirit, and before it, is not a Faith wrought by the Lords Almighty power.

The proofe of the Minor.

From the condition of all these three, the Word, the Work, and the light of a renewed Conscience, they are all but created blessings, and gifts. Therefore cannot produce of themselves a word of Almighty power. Because the Word without the Almighty power of the Spirit is but a dead Letter; and the Work hath no more power then the Word; not so much neither. For Faith cometh rather by hearing of a Word, then by seeing of a Worke, Rom. 10. 17. And the light of a renewed Conscience, is a created gift of spirituall knowledge in the conscience.

Object. 1. 1 John 2. 3. Hereby we know that we know him, that we keep his Commandements. 1 John 3. 14. We know we have passed from death to life, because we love the Brethren. Vers. 19 Hereby we know we are of the truth.

Answ. 1. No better Answer need to be expected then what Calvin hath given in the exposition of these Scriptures; who thus expoundeth them.

'Though every believer hath 'the testimony of his Faith from 'his Workes, yet that commeth in a posteriori probatione, a latter, or, secondary proofe, instead of a signe. Therefore the assurance of Faith (saith hee) doth wholly reside in the grace of Christ; and we must alwaies, saith he, remember, that it is not from our love to the Brethren, that we have the knowledge of our estate, which the Apostle speaketh of, as if from thence were fetched the assurance of salvation. For surely wee doe not know by any other meanes, that we are the Children of God: but because hee sealeth unto our heart by his Spirit, our adoption of us out of free-grace: and we by faith receive the assured pledge of him, given in Christs love. Therefore as an addition, or inferiour helpe, for a prop unto faith, not for a foundation to leane on.

Certaine it is, that those which Iohn writ unto, were three sorts of men: Old men, Young men, and Babes: yet there was none of them but Answ. 2.

did know their good estate, by the knowledge of the Father; before they knew their good estat by their brotherly love: For even of Babes (he saith) they knew the Father, 1 Joh. 2.13. And therefore by the rule of relation, they knew their Son-ship and adoption: And if it should be asked, how they knew it; John telleth, By the unction they had received from Christ, 1 Joh. 2.27. that is, by the spirit it selfe, which taught them to know all things; which no created gifts of Sanctification could doe. Even in nature, children do not first come to know their parents either by their love to their brethren or by their obedience to their parents; but from their parents love descending on them: So we loved him because he first loved us, 1 John 4.19. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be propitiation for our sins, 1 Joh. 4.10.

Object. If John could give sanctification for an evidence of adoption, to such as

knew their good estate before by the witnesse of the Spirit, this were but to light a Candle unto the Sunne?

Whether were it more absurd to light a Candle unto the Sunne, or to light a Candle to see to a mans eyes; Now faith is instead of eyes unto the soule: By Faith Abraham saw the day of Christ, and rejoyced, though it were a farre off, Ioh. 8. 56. Answ. 1.

The same Apostle saith, that there bee six Witnesses that give light and evidence unto our spirituall life in Christ: of which three be in heaven, and three on the earth; and the Spirit in both: yet he did not thinke it a vaine thing to give the water of Baptisme, (as out of the death and resurrection of Christ we receive the power to walk in newnesse of life, Rom. 6. 3. 4.) as a witnesse after foure of the greater lights. Answ. 2.

If you take Sanctification for a created gift, it is indeed but a Candle to the Sunne. But when Iohn taketh it, but to confirme faith, he Answ. 3.

meaneth then, the Spirit of God beareth witnesse in it: or else the testimony of sanctification, though it be a divine gift or work, yet it would not give a divine testimony, nor increase divine faith; for the heavens and earth are divine and supernaturall works, yet they doe not give divine testimony of the Godhead, unlesse the Spirit of God himselfe doe beare witnesse in them.

Therefore John giving sanctification for an evidence of a good estate, to such as already knew it, by the witnesse of the Spirit, is not a lighting of a candle to the Sunne; but as the setting up of another window, though a lesser, to convay the same Sun light into the house another way.

Object 2. In 2 Pet. chap. 1. from verse 5. to 10. the Apostle exhorteth us, by adding one gift of sanctification to another, to make our calling and election sure.

Answ. Let Calvin answer for me: This assuassurance (faith hee) whereof Peter speaketh, by adding grace to grace, is not in my judgement to be referred unto conscience, as if the faithfull did thereby before God know themselves called, and chosen; but if any man will understand it, of making of it sure before men, there will be no absurdity in this sense: Nevertheless it might be extended further, that every one may be confirmed in their calling, by their godly and holy life. But that is a proofe, not from the cause, but from a signe, and effect.

There be many conditionall promises in the Gospel, which are made to the gifts and duties of sanctification; which are all in vaine, if poore drooping soules, finding such gifts, and duties of sanctification in themselves, may not take comfort from them, according to the promise. Object. 3.

The conditionall promises are made to poore drooping soules, not in respect of such conditions, or as Answ. 1.

they are qualified with such gifts and duties of sanctification; but in respect of their union with Christ, to whom the promises belong, Gal. 3.26, 28, 29. The fruits of such an union with Christ, such duties and gifts of sanctification be, when they be sincere: otherwise, if the promises were made to such soules, in respect of such conditions, then the reward promised would belong unto them, not of grace, but of debt, Rom. 4.4. A promise made to any condition, after it be made, it becometh due debt to him, in whomsoever such condition is to be found: But therefore that such promises might be of grace, they are made to us, not as wee are indued with such and such conditions; but as wee who have such and such conditions are united unto Christ. Whence it is, that such blessings offered in such promises, as they are tendered to us in Christ, so are they fulfilled to us in Christ. Whereupon, upon, we look for the bleſſing, not in our gifts and duties; but in going ſtill unto Chriſt, for a clearer and fuller manifeſtation of him to us, and of comfort in him. As for example, A thirſty ſoule, to whom promiſe is made that hee ſhall be ſatisfied; hee looketh not preſently to be ſatisfied from his thirſting, nor from any right his thirſting might give him in the promiſe, but hee looketh to be ſatisfied by going unto Chriſt, in drinking more abundantly of him by his Spirit, as Chriſt himſelf directeth ſuch drooping ſoules to doe: and ſo we are to make uſe of ſuch kind of promiſes; Joh. 7.37,38,39.

No man can ſee his gifts and duties of ſanctification in himſelfe, but hee muſt firſt have ſeen Chriſt by faith, the Spirit of Chriſt enlightening his underſtanding in the knowledge of him. As in caſe of mourning, to which many promiſes are made, No man can (with E- Answ. 2.

vangelicall repentance) mourne over Christ, and for himselfe, untill the Spirit work faith; and by faith beholding Christ, hee hath seen him crucified, and by him, Zech. 12. 10. So then these conditions, and the promises made to them, doe not give us our first sight of Christ, nor the first glymyse of light and comfort from him; but rather our sight of Christ, and some glympses of light and comfort from him, doth beget such conditions in us.

Answ. 3. Such conditionall promises are not in vain, though poore drooping soules have found no comfort by them, and though they cannot suck present comfort from them, and from their good conditions accordingly to them.

Reas. 1. Because these promises being discerned in a Covenant of free-grace made in Christ, by them doe work (if they were not wrought before) or at least confirme such conditions in the soule. As when God promised miſed them to ſend a Redeemer out of Sion, unto them which turne from tranſgreſſion in Jacob, Iſai. 59.20. the Apoſtle expoundeth it, That Chriſt ſhall come out of Sion, and ſhall turne away tranſgreſſion from Jacob: which is as much as if hee ſhould ſay, He ſhall work that condition which the promiſe was made unto. And this the Apoſtle maketh to be the meaning, and the bleſſing of the promiſe, according to the Covenant of grace, Rom. 11. 26, 27.

The promiſes are not in vain to ſuch ſoules, in whom ſuch good conditions are wrought; becauſe they direct them where they may find comfort, and ſatisfying to their hearts deſire: to wit, not by clearing their good conditions in themſelves; but by coming unto Chriſt, and drinking a more full draught of his Spirit; as Chriſt directeth thirſty ſoules to doe, Joh. 7. 37. If any man thirſt, let him come to me, and drink. V. 38. Hee that beleeveth on me, (as the Reaſ. 2.

the Scripture saith) out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. V. 39. But this hee spake of the Spirit, that they which beleeve on him, shall receive.

Object. But why may not the holy Spirit breathe his first comforts into our soules, even on such conditions? Is not this to limit the Spirit, who is free, and bloweth where hee listeth? Joh. 3. 8.

Answ. He doth not breathe his first comforts in such conditions, because he listeth not: it is not his good pleasure to give us our first comfort (which is the comfort of our Justification) from our owne righteousnesse, before hee give us comfort in the righteousnesse of Christ. The holy Spirit in all his dispensations to us ward, delighteth to receive all from Christ, rather then from us; that so hee might glorifie Christ in us. The Comforter whom I shall send to you, hee shall glorifie me; for hee shall receive of mine, and shew it unto you, Joh. 16. 14. Nor will he ſo much diſhonour the righteouſneſſe and grace of the Father of glory, as firſt to pronounce and declare us juſtified in the ſight of our owne righteouſneſſe.

In *Mat.*7. from verſe 16. to 20. The tree is knowne by his fruit. Object. 4.

True, to others; but not unto himſelfe. If a tree could know it ſelfe, it would firſt come to know it ſelfe, by ſeeing upon what root it grew, before it came to ſee what fruit it did beare; Job. 15. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. Anſw.

But this Doctrine is new, it is not ancient, nor gray-headed. Object. 5.

The Doctrines of the Covenant of free-grace are ever new; becauſe they are the Doctrines of the New-Covenant, which can never waxe old: ſhould it once waxe old, it would ſoone vaniſh away, Heb. 8. from *verſ.*8. to 13. though it be as ancient as Abraham, yea, as Adam; for hee had his firſt comfort and aſſurance, in an abſolute promiſe of free- Anſw.

free-grace, Gen. 3. 15. yet it hath ever seemed new in every age.

Augustines Doctrine of Conversion, that is of grace, and not of free-will.

Luthers Doctrine of Justification, that is of faith, not of works.

Calvins Doctrine of Predestination, that is of grace, not of faith and works fore-seen: were all of them thought new Doctrines in their times; and yet all of them the ancient truths of the everlasting Covenant of grace.

And surely, for this Doctrine in hand, Calvin is as clear, as my hearts desire to God is wee all might be; his words have been partly rehearsed before, in the answer of some Objections; and partly in my large Answer to your Reply.

Bellarmine taketh it to be the generall Doctrine of the Lutherans, That, Assurance of faith goeth before works, and doth not follow after, Institut. lib. 3. cap. 9. And Pareus in answer answer unto him, saith, That though there be an assurance that followeth good works, yet the former assurance from the witnesse of the Spirit goeth before.

And seeing they that are the chief Reformers of the Protestant Assemblies, doe generally make sanctification a fruit of faith, and doe define faith to be, A speciall assurance of mercy in Christ; it must needs be out of controversie their judgement, That a man receiveth his first assurance, not from his sanctification, which they make to be an effect flowing from it; but from an higher principle, even from the grace of the Father, and the righteousnesse of the Sonne, the Lord Jesus Christ; and witnessed by the holy Spirit.

Bilney, in the Book of Martyrs, in his Epistle to B. Tunstall, relating the manner of his conversion, protested, That when hee had wearied himself in many superstitious works of fasting, and Popish pennance, hee received at last his first assurance, from that place in Timothy, 1 Tim. 1. 15. hee calleth it a most sweet word unto him, This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the chiefe. A word from an absolute promise, set home unto him by the holy Spirit, without respect of any sanctification formerly wrought or seene in him.

Alas, how farre are they mistaken, that thinke the contrary Doctrine hath beene sealed with the bloud of Martyrs?

Zanchius his judgement, though he was a godly and an eminent learned man, yet I would not have named him, but that Mr. Perkins highly approved his discourse, and translated it, as a choyce piece, into his owne Volume, which maketh it obvious to every godly Reader, that studieth Perkins learned Workes;

Page 429. the first testimony, saith Zanchey and Poreius, for him; by which God assureth us of our election, is that inward testimony of the Spirit, of which the Apostle Paul speaketh, Rom. 8. 16. The Spirit witnesseth to our spirits, that wee are the sonnes of God; And afterward comming to give some direction how a man may know, whether this testimony be true, and proceedeth from the holy Spirit, or no.

Hee answereth, Page 433. three waies.

First, A man may know it, first, by the perswasion it selfe. 1

Secondly, By the manner of its perswasion. 2.

Thirdly, By the effects. 3.

For the first, the holy Spirit doth not simply say it, but doth perswade with us; that we are the sonnes of God: And no flesh can doe it againe. 1

By reasons drawne not from our 2

worke, or from any worthinesse in us; but from the alone goodnesse of God the Father, and the grace of Christ freely bestowed, and in this manner the Devill will never perswade any man.

3 The perswasion of the holy Spirit is full of power; for they which are perswaded that they are the sons of God, cannot, but must needs call him Father, and in regard of love to him do hate sinne; and on the contrary, they have a sound hearty desire to do his Word and Will revealed.

Answ. 2. For the second Answer to the imputation of Novelty; 'Either (saith 'John Cotton) I am exceedingly de-'ceived, or it justly falleth upon 'the contrary Doctrine, and they 'are much mistaken that think other-'wise; I never read it to my best re-'membrance, in any Author olde or 'new: that ever a man received his 'first evidence of the faith of his Ju-'stification, from his Sanctification, 'unlesse it be one, (whom I met with within these two dayes) Printed within these two yeares, that maintaineth our first comfort of Justification from Sanctification. But generally all our English Orthodox Teachers doe oppose it.

with-

Amongst the English Teachers one, for ought I know, did more advance the Doctrine of Marks and Signes, then Master Nicholas Byfield, and yet he himselfe professeth, that humane reason cannot beleeve such great things from God, from any thing that is in us: But onely because we having the Word of God assuring such happinesse unto such as lay hold upon the promises contained in it. So that it is that which precedeth Faith, or as he calleth it, the perswasion of our good estates. Yet notwithstanding, saith he, the assurance of Faith is much increased, and confirmed by Signes; the former part of which speech, touching the first begettings of the assurance of Faith, consenteth with me;

the latter, concerning the increasing and confirming of the assurance argueth plainely his consent, thus farre also, that he meant not that the assurance of the Faith of Justification should spring from Sanctification: But when he would have the assurance of Faith to bee increased and confirmed by the light of Signes, I would not refuse it; but by the assurance of Faith, he meanes onely assurance of Knowledge; or if he meaneth onely assurance of Faith, properly so called, I would then put in this caution.

That then the Spirit of God himselfe had need, by his owne testimony, to reveale our justification unto us, and Gods free grace in accepting us in Christ: or else it is not Word, nor Worke, nor the light of a renewed conscience, that can increase, or confirme, the assurance of Faith of our Justification. But only the manifestation of God get Faith in us: then if wee were Passive in receiving Faith, wee are much more passive in receiving Christ, or the Spirit of Christ, that begetteth Faith: for if we have no life to be Active untill Faith come; we have much lesse life to be Active before the Cause, and root of Faith come.

But it is the spirit of Grace, shed abroad in our hearts, that begetteth Faith in us, Zech. 12. 10.

Therefore if we be Passive in receiving Faith; we are much more Passive, in receiving the spirit that begetteth Faith.

If we bee active in laying hold on Christ, before he hath given us his Spirit: then we apprehend him, before he apprehend us: then wee should doe a good act, and so bring forth good fruites, before wee become good trees; yea, and bee good trees before we be in Christ. Reas. 2.

But these are all contrary to the Gospell, Philip. 3. 12. 13. Matth. 7. 18.

7. 18. Iohn 15. 4. 5.

Therefore wee bee not active in laying hold on Christ, before hee he hath given us his Spirit.

Queſt. 2. Whether our Faith bee active to lay hold upon Christ for his righteouſneſſe, before the Lord do firſt impute the righteouſneſſe of Christ to us; we conceive no.

For theſe Reaſons.

Reaſon 1. If the ſinne of Adam were imputed unto us for our condemnation, aſſoone as we were alive by naturall life before we had done any act of life, good or evill: then the righteouſneſſe of Jeſus Christ is imputed unto us to our Juſtification, as ſoon as we be alive unto God by Faith, before wee have done any act of Faith.

But the former is plaine, Rom. 5.18.19.

Therefore the latter alſo.

Reaſ. 2. If our Faith be firſt active, to lay hold upon Christ for his righteouſneſſe, before God imputeth it unto Free-grace, in a Divine testimony, atified by his owne good Spirit.

The third Question is concerning the activenesse of Faith; The Controversie is Quest. 3. WHether Faith concurre as an active instrumentall cause to our Justification?

In the explicating of it, I must first speake what it is that justifieth nee.

1 First, we doe beleeve, that in our effectuall calling, God draweth us to nion with Christ, Ioh. 6. 44. Shedding abroad his Spirit in our hearts, om. 5. 5. And working Faith in us receive Christ, Ioh. 1. 12. 13. And live by Faith upon him, Gal. 2. 20.

2 Secondly, we are no sooner alive in hrist, but we are accounted of God s his adopted children in Christ, Gal. 26. Ephes. 1. 5. and so are made heires of righteousnesse, Galat. 3. 29. God imputing the righteousnesse of his Sonne Jesus to us for our justification, Rom. 4. 23. 24. 25.

As we were no sooner alive in the first Adam, but we became his children, and heires of his transgression; God imputing the guilt of it to our condemnation.

Now in this we all consent; that in receiving the gift of Faith we are meerely passive.

But yet a double Question heere ariseth.

Quest. 1. Whether in receiving of Christ (or the Spirit, who commeth into our hearts in his name) we be meerly passive?

Quest. 2. Whether our Faith bee active to lay hold upon the righteousnesse of Christ, before the Lord doe first impute the righteousnesse of Christ unto us.

Our Reasons are.

Reas. 1. If it be the spirit of Grace shed abroad in our hearts, that doth bein the time past, doe beleeve on his name in the time present. Which we willingly grant; that they who receive Christ, their faith becommeth active through him to beleeve in his name, that so they might receive him, and his righteousnesse.

ge

We are justified by Faith, Rom. 3. 28. Object. 2.

When we are said to bee justified by Faith; It is by the righteousnesse of Christ imputed unto us. Answ.

Abrahams To credere, his act of beleeving, was imputed unto him for righteousnesse, Rom 4. 3. Object. 3.

It is taken generally amongst the Learned, for a singular opinion of Master Wotton, that To credere, the act of beleeving should be imputed for rigteousnesse. Answ.

For, indeed, the act of beleeving is neither a righteousnesse according unto the Law; For the Law is perfect, Psal. 19. 7. Nor a righteousnesse according unto the Gospell; For the act of beleeving is an act of

of our owne, though given of grace: But the righteousnesse of the Gospell is not an act of our own And therefore Paul desireth that he may be found in Christ, not having his owne righteousnesse which is of the Law, but that which is through the Faith of Christ, the righteousnesse which is of God by faith, Phil. 3. 9. to wit, the righteousnesse of Christ imputed.

Object. 4. But this Doctrine is opposite unto the streame of all the Learned; a passive Faith is not heard of amongst men, and they doe genenerally make Faith an instrumentall cause of their Justification.

Answ. A passive Faith is rarely hard of out of my mouth, but yet the thing meant by it, is never rare in the writings of the learned, nor sometimes the word passive Faith.

Two things are meant by the word of Faith, and may be said to be passive in our Justification, in a double respect.

1 Because a habite of Faith may be called us; Then wee take Christs righteousnesse to our selves, before it bee given unto us.

But that wee cannot doe, for in the order of nature, giving is the cause of taking; unlesse wee take a thing by stealth.

If our Faith be first active in laying hold on Christ for his righteousnesse, before God impute it unto us; then we doe justifie God, before he doth justifie us. Reas. 3.

For hee receiveth the testimony which God hath given of his Son: that God hath given us life in his Sonne, he hath set to his seale that God is true, Iohn 3.33. And so he which justifieth God, as others that doe not receive the testimony, condemne God of lying, 1 Ioh. 5.10.

But we cannot Justifie God before he justi e us; no more then we can love him before hee first loved us, 1 Ioh. 4.19.

If our Faith be first active to lay hold on Christ for his righteousnes, Reas. 4.

before God impute his righteousnes unto us: Then wee are righteous men to act, and worke out our own righteousnesse, before we be righteous, by the imputed righteousnes of Christ.

But we be to our best acts and workes of righteousnesse, unrighteous, till our sinnes bee pardoned, which is not untill the righteousnesse of Christ be imputed to us.

Reason 5. In the order of nature, the object is before the act that is conversant about it: Therefore it is in the order of nature, before the act of our Faith.

Object. 1. To beleeve on the name of Christ is an act of Faith; To beleeve on the name of Christ, is to receive Christ, Iohn 1. 12.

Therefore the receiving of Christ is by an act of Faith.

Answ. The place in Iohn, upon which the weight of this Argument lieth, saith no more, but that they which received Christ in the second Aoriſt in called passive, before it putteth forth any act, and we are justified assoone as by an habit of faith we are alive in Christ; in the first moment of our conversion, before Faith hath put forth any act: as we were all guilty of Adams sinne, before we were active to reach forth any consent unto it.

Faith may be said to bee passive 2 in our justification, because it doth not lay hold on Christ, to fetch Justification from him, till Christ have first laid hold on us, and imputed his righteousnesse to us; and declared it unto us by his Spirit, in a free promise of Grace: And then Faith becommeth active, actually to receive Christs righteousnesse; and actually to beleeve on it, either by way of dependance, or assurance.

For the truth is, seeing wee are not justified, neither as it is a gift in us; nor as it is an acting and working from us; but in regard of his object, the righteousnesse of Christ which which it receiveth.

Therefore which way ſoever Faith may receive Chriſt firſt or laſt, by the ſame way we may be juſtified by it.

Now Faith of it ſelfe, even the habit of Faith is an emptying grace, and ſo is as an empty veſſell, fit to receive Chriſt and his righteouſnes.

And both the act of Faith, whether of dependance on Chriſt, or of our aſſrance in Chriſt, carrieth us out of our ſelves unto him, and ſo maketh us fit to receive Chriſt, and his righteouſneſſe.

Thus I have explained what I meane by a paſſive Faith.

Let me ſhew you, that neither the Word, nor the naming of it, is an untruth from our beſt learned men of eminent worth for parts and abilities.

In a Booke of choice English Sermons, that goeth under the name of Doctor Sybbs, and our Brother Hooker, and master Davenport, there one stiled the Witnesse of Salvation, on Rom. 8. 15. 16. where in Page 135. are these words: In Justification, Faith is a sufferer onely; But in Sanctification, it worketh, and purgeth the whole man.

As for our Learned men that doe generally make Faith an instrumentall cause of their Justification. I confesse it is true; But I doe not understand them (as Chemierius doth in the like case) to meane no other kinde of cauſe; then Cauſa ſine qua non, or, Cauſa remouens, or prohibens. For Faith keepeth the Soule empty of confidence in it ſelfe, and maketh a way for the receiving of the righteouſneſſe of Chriſt. Even as the poore Widdowes empty veſſells made a way for the receiving the oyle out of the Cruſe; whereas the fulneſſe of the Veſſell cauſed the ſtay.

It quencheth the gifts of the ho- 3

ly Spirit; because it hath no spirituall imployment for Prayer nor Praise in his spirituall house, 1 Pet. 2. 5.

4 God is so jealous of his glory, that hee cannot endure his worship should be corrupted with the least mixture of man: Nadab and Abihu, for offering with strange fire which God commanded them not, were destroyed with fire from the Lord, Levit. 10. 1, 2.

Vzzah, for touching the Ark contrary to the order of the God of Israel, was smitten dead, and Israel had a breach made amongst them, 1 Chron. 13. 9, 10, 11. compared with 1 Chron. 15. 12, 13.

Jeroboam devised worship at Dan and Bethel, though hee pretended by it to worship the true God, and advance the worship of Jehovah; yet hee worshipped nothing but the Devils, and Calves that hee made, 2 Chron. 11. 15. And it became a sinne to Jeroboam and his house, to destroy it root and branch, and all the Kings that countenanced and upheld it; 1 Kin. 13.34. 2 Kin. 17. 21, 22, 23. But such as feared the Lord amongst them, both Levites and Priests, left their Cities, and possession; and of the people, such as set their heart to seeke the Lord God of Israel, came to Jerusalem: So Jeroboams Kingdome weakned; but Rehoboam, that gave liberty of conscience to worship the true God, strengthened; 2 Chron. 11.16, 17.

Now, was God so jealous of his glory under the Law, that hee that sinned against that worship which God by Moses prescribed, hee died without mercy? how much severer punishment are they worthy of, that sinne against the Sonnes authority, seeing hee is Lord of the spirituall house, whose house are wee, Heb. 3.6. And the heavenly Father commandeth us to heare him, Mat. 17.5. and that in all things, or our soules must perish, Acts 3.22, 23? Now, if we worshipGod in prayer or praise or any other way, by any innovation or invention of man, let us heare what our Prophet Jesus saith In vaine yee worship me, teaching for Doctrines the Commandements of men Esay 29.13,14. *Mar.*7 6,7,8. And however it may seeme glorious in our eyes, yet God hath set this stigma on it, That it is a vain worship.

5 I cannot worship God in a stinted forme of worship, in prayer, and praise, and the like, lest I make myselfe guilty of the bloud of Christ.

Christ by his death hath freed me from the whole Ceremoniall Law, so that if I consent to reare againe what Christ by his death hath abolished, I crucifie Christ, make my selfe guilty of his blood, and as much as in me lieth, expell him out of the Nation.

Now, the Ceremoniall Law had his constitution in Israel, either from Moses, or from God: Not from Moses, ſt, for hee was a ſervant in his houſe, and hee did nothing in the Tabernacle, nor about it, but what God ſhewed him, Exod. 25. 4. Acts 7. 44. But the Ceremoniall Law had his originall law from God: Now, if the death of Chriſt were of that power, to put an end to the whole Ceremoniall preſcribed Worſhip, ſo that whoſoever ſhould dare it again ſhould crucifie Chriſt, and make us guilty of his bloud, &c. then, that death of Chriſt is of force, to put an end to mans Ceremoniall Worſhip:

But the firſt is true; Ergo, the latter.

Object. The Conſequence is denyed.

Anſw. That power which can diſanull a greater, muſt needs diſanull the leſſer; if the death of Chriſt put an end to the heavenly Fathers Ceremoniall Worſhip, and in prayer and praiſe, at, or before the Ark, or in the Temple; then it will put an end to all mans deviſed Worſhip, unlesse you will advance the authority of man above God the Father. Col. 2. 20, 21, 22, 23. If Christ by his death hath freed us from the rudiments of the world, the Mosaicall Ceremonies, why hving in the world are wee intangled with ordinances, after the doctrine, traditions, and commandements of men?

Object. But they are set up for the glory of God.

Answ. Not I, but Paul shall answer for me; They have a shew of wisdome, will-worship; but it is onely a shew there is no substance in it.

6 Wee harden the obstinate Papist in their superstition; for they say and that truly, Wee received most of our formes of prayer and praise from them.

7 Wee rob the Spirit of his glory who is given to Saints to form prayer and praise in them, 1 Cor. 14. 15, 16. Rom 8.26. *Gal.*4.6.

8 Wee impose a burthen upon the conscien conscience to be practised, which God hath left arbitrary, to be used according to our necessities; If we be afflicted, then pray; if wee have tasted how bountifull the Lord hath been to us in blessings, then let us praise him; *Jam.*5.13.

9 If wee frequent devised formes of Worship in prayer or praise, we shall lay a stumbling block before a weak brother, and cause him to fall. Woe be to them that follow the way of Balaam, who taught Balack to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, Revel.2.14. Jud.v.11. Now offences must come, but woe unto the men by whom they come: It were better for me, that a milstone were hanged about my neck, and that I were cast into the sea, then that I should offend one of these little ones, Luk.17.1,2.

10 If wee frequent devised formes of Worship in prayer or praise, we shall offend our consciences; (even so many of us as are Saints enlightned, to behold the beauty of his spirituall Worship, performed, or offered in his spirituall house, the Congregation of the faithfull united;) Now if our consciences condemne us, God is greater then our consciences, and hee will condemne us also, 1 *Joh.*3.19. for he knoweth all things. Therefore I say to you (who blame us for not frequenting devised forms of Worship in prayer and praises) as Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego did to King Nebuchadnezzar, We are not carefull to answer you in this matter; Our God whom wee serve is able to deliver us out of your hand: But if he will not, be it known to you, we will not serve your gods; nor worship our God in that devised way that men set up, *Dan.*3.16,17,18.

11 If one set form of spirituall Worship in prayer and praises had been needfull, Christ would have left one: But the Prophets, Christ, the Apostles, never prayed nor praised God by any set forme of Worship invented by man; but by the powerfull erfull worke of the holy Spirit, Rom. 8.26. Gal. 4.6.

A ſet forme of Worſhip preſcribed in prayer or praiſes, cannot in prayer expreſſe the ſeverall neceſſities of Gods people; for the more grace they have, the more they ſee their owne wants; and the more ſenſible they are of their owne infirmities, corruptions, and ſinnes. Neither can it in praiſes expreſſe the manifold experiences that the Saints daily obſerve of Gods mercifull dealing with them: Therefore a ſet Forme of prayer or praiſes to Gods Saints, and faithfull ones, principled with a ſpirit of prayer and praiſe, it is altogether unuſefull; 1 Cor. 14. 15, 16. 12

A DESCRIPTION OF THE Spirituall TEMPLE: OR THE SPOUSE Prepared for the LAMBE, The LORD JESUS.

Written by FRANCIS CORNWEL, a Minister and Servant of Jesus, the Christ, for the benefit of poore distressed consciences, in City and Countrey.

LONDON, Printed by John Dawson. 1646.

Spiritual TEMPLE:

OR THE

SPOUSE

Prepared for the

LAMB,

The Lord

JESUS.

TO THE HONOVRABLE,

and the true lover of all conscientious Covenantours, that stand up for a through Reformation, according to the word of our good God, in England, and Ireland, CORNELIUS HOLLAND Esquire, a Member of the House of Commons Assembled in Parliament.

SIR,

DAvid describeth the godly man, by his pleasure, and by his paines: First, the pleasure of the godly man, in these words: He delighteth in the Law of the Lord. Secondly, the paines of the godly man: And in that Law he meditateth day and night; not only in the day appointed for man to labour in, but in the night also appointed for man to rest: the reason is, because it is his meat and drinke, to doe the will of his God. (Honoured Sir) The Word of Christ being the Rule Psal. 1. 2.

of Englands Reformation; the good Lord (that writeth his Lawes in his peoples hearts, according to his new Covenant of Grace: Heb. 8. 10.) put it into my minde, seriously to consider, What Schisme was, that I had covenanted against. And searching the Scriptures, I found it thus written; 1 Tim. 6. 3. If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to the wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ; and to the Doctrine which is according to godlinesse. Vers. 4. He is proud, knowing nothing; but doting about Questions, and strife of words; whereof commeth envy, strife, raylings, evill surmisings. Vers. 5. Perverse disputings of men of corrupt mindes, and destitute of the truth; supposing that gaine is godlinesse; from such withdraw thy self. Yea, and after a further enquiry, to understand aright the things that are controverted amongst us; by the good providence of the Almighty, I found two Texts of holy Scripture, setting forth two sorts of men, Diametrally opposing one another, as light doth darkenesse, truth doth falsehood; the one thus written: 1 John 5. 1. Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ, is borne of God. And the other, thus; 1 John 2. 22. Who is a lyar, but he

that denyeth that Jesus is not the Christ, He is Antichrist, that denyeth the Father and the Sonne. And when I thought to understand the difference, it was to hard for me, untill I went into the Sanctuary of God; where the Father of glory, of his good pleasure, revealed to me (the most unworthyest of all his servants) the truth of that; which (I conceive) is the root of all our Controversies, and gave me to understand the meaning of the Scriptures, 1 John 5. 1. Whosoever beleeveth that Jesus is the Christ, viz. the eternall King, Prophet, Priest of the Church of the new Testament, ratified with his bloud, whom the Father of glory hath exalted to bee Lord and Christ, Acts 2. 36. and head, Ephes. 2. 20, 21, 22, 23. Is borne of God. Seeing no man can say, (that is confest) that Jesus is the Lord but by the holy Spirit, 1 Cor. 12. 3.

Hence I find it written, Joh. 1. 11, Jesus came to his owne, but his owne received him not, that is, for the Christ, that Messiah which was to come: but onely for the Carpenters sonne, Matth. 13. 58. The reason was, because none could understand that Mystery: but they onely to whom the Father of heaven revealed it, Matth. 11. 24. Hence, when Jesus demanded of his Disciples,

Disciples? Whom doe men say that I the Sonne of Man am? Peter answereth, thou art the Christ, the Sonne of the living God: Jesus answereth; Blessed art thou Simon Bar-Jona; for flesh and bloud hath not revealed this unto thee; but my Father in heaven. And thou art Peter, and upon this Rock (Jesus the Christ whom thou hast confessed) I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it, Mat. 16. 16, 17, 18. Many for fear durst not in those dayes confesse Jesus to be the Christ: Instance the Parents of the blind man: Because the Jewes had agreed, that if any did confesse, that he was the Christ; He should be put out of the Synagogue, John 9. 22. But so many as recived him (viz. to be the Christ) to them he gave power to be called the sons of God; even to them that beleeve in his name; which were borne not of bloud nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, But of God, John 1. 12, 13. And as for that other Text of the holy Scripture that doth universally oppose it, the heavenly Father gave me thus to interpret it: 1. John 2. 22. Who is a lyar (viz. borne of the evill one, who is a lyar, and the father of lyes, and abode not in the truth, John 8. 44. But hee that denieth that JESUS (whom hee confesseth dyed for his sinnes; and rose againe the third day, according to the Scriptures) Is not the Christ, viz. the annoynted King and Prophet of his Church, in all his outward administrations and institutions, in admitting of Members into his spirituall Kingdome, according to his royall Commission, Matth. 28. 18, 19. Mark. 15. 15, 16. (though he acknowledge him to be his eternall Priest that ever liveth, to make intercession to God for him, Heb. 7. 25. He is that Antichrist (viz. an enemy and adversary to Jesus the Christ) that denieth the Father and the Sonne, He that denieth the Sonnes Authority, to bee the eternall King, and his Commission to bee in force, Matth. 28. 18, 19, 20. Mark. 15. 15, 16. and to be the eternall Prophet; and his word to be the eternall rule for Doctrine and Gouernement; aswell as his eternall Priest to reconcile him to God: Denieth the Father, that sanctified the Sonne, and sent him into the World, John 10. 36. and raised him from the dead, and exalted him to bee Lord and Christ, Acts 2. 36. Hence it is (my Honoured friend) First, that in all my writings, I have studied to exalt Jesus the Christ, it being.

being the Primitive Faith once given to the Saints, Math. 16. 16. Secondly, to distinguish Jesus the Christ from all others named with the name of Jesus in Scripture Record: as Joshua is called Jesus, Hebr. 4. 8. &c. others. Thirdly, because I find the Scriptures giving that Title to him in divers places.

John confesseth, I am not the Christ, John 1. 20. The Woman of Samaria said, I know the Messiah commeth which is called the Christ, John 4. 25. Apollos mightily convinced the Jewes, shewing by the Scriptures, that Jesus was the Christ, Acts 18. 28. Now that I received from the Lord, I could not but make knowne to you, You being one of the tender hearted Loyall Covenanters, a Member of that High and Honourable Court, under whose shade Conscientious Covenantours (that contend for the faith of Jesus the Christ, once given to the Saints) find rest.

Know (worthy Sir) that the departure from the faith of Jesus the Christ is a cause of so many Schismes, and Heresies maintained in the earth. Disdaine not therefore to read a little Treatise, called the Difference betweene the Christian, and Antichristian Church, Deliniated according to the Scripture Record, though the truth therein contained (like the Two witnesses, Revel. 11.3.) have long mourned in Sackcloth: Yet if God give you an heart to receive it, It will be a Jewell surpassing all earthly Treasure. For if Iesus the Christ bee your Prophet to teach you, his heavenly Father will, Matth. 17.5. Acts 3.22.23. He will then be your King to protect you, Matth 28. 20. Your Priest to intercede for you, Joh. 27. 20. Your Judge to acquit you, Joh. 12. 48. and if the love of Christ draw you to keepe all his Commandements (though in the world you meet with affliction for his sake; yet in Christ you shall find peace) for the Father, Son, and Spirit will dwell in your heart, and take it for the Sanctum Sanctorum, where they will abide to cheer and refresh you, Joh. 14.23. And if you confesse, him in this world before men: He will confesse you before his Father, and proclaime it to your eternall peace and comfort, (Euge bone serve) Well done thou good and faithfull servant, enter into your Masters joy. Matth. 25. 21.

Orpington in Kent, the tenth Moneth, the first day, 1645.

Yours, who contendeth for the faith of Jesus the Christ.

FRANCIS CORNWELL

To all loyall Covenanters, contending for the Faith of JESUS the CHRIST, once given to the Saints; Mat. 16. 16, 17.

COurteous Reader, be not too censorious concerning him that is the Publisher of this little Treatise, stiled, The difference between the Christian and Antichristian Church, as if hee condemned the Ages and Generations that are past, as in a lost condition; because he saith they have built their house upon wood, and hay, and stuble, and not upon the sure rock Jesus the Christ: Farre be it from him to judge so rashly of the Ages and Generations past, or present, concerning their finall estate; for hee is commanded to judge no man before the time, knowing that they stand and fall to their owne Master: And, wee shall all stand before the judgement seat of Christ;

And then and there every one ſhall give an account for himſelfe to God, Rom. 14. 4,10,12. Knowing, as it is recorded in the inſpired Scriptures, that If any man build upon this foundation (Jeſus the Chriſt) gold, ſilver, precious ſtones, wood, hay, ſtubble; Every mans work ſhall be made manifeſt: for the day ſhall declare it, because it ſhall be revealed by fire: and the fire ſhall try every mans worke. If any mans worke abide, which hee hath built thereon, hee ſhall receive a reward: If any mans work ſhall be burnt, hee ſhall ſuffer loſſe; but himſelfe ſhall be ſaved yet ſo as by fire, 1 *Cor.*3.12,13,14,15.

Secondly, Know that the diſcovery of this truth was (as the viſion that is hid for an appointed time) and is become unto us, as the words of a book that is ſealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, ſaying, Read this I pray thee: And he ſaith, I cannot; for it is ſealed. And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, ſaying, Read this I pray thee: And hee ſaith, I am not learned, Eſay 29.11,12. So that it is not in him that is learned, nor in him that is unlearned, to diſcover the myſtery of iniquity, by which Antichriſt hath filled the Temple ſo full of ſmoak, that no man can ſee how to enter into it, until

God

God enlighten him; which caused the Lord Jesus in the dayes of his flesh, to break out into an Eucharistia of praise, looking on his Disciples, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and learned, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even so, O Father, because it seemed good in thy sight, Mat. 11.25,26. That the whole glory in discovering of truth to any, might be given unto God.

Thirdly, Know (gentle Reader, who art a searcher after truth in these inquiring times) that the Publisher wrote this Treatise, to discover that the difference lieth not so much amongst us in point of Baptisme; as it is about the Doctrine of the Faith of Jesus the Christ, the Sonne of God; which whosoever beleeveth and confesseth, that Jesus the Christ is the Son of God, it is lawfull to baptize him, Act. 8. 36,37,38. And, to which Faith of Jesus the Christ, and Baptisme, the promise of receiving the gifts of the holy Spirit is given, Act. 2.38,39. And though for publishing this mystery of Faith, which hath been hidden for some Ages and Generations that are past, hee suffer reproach and contempt from the hands and tongues of some; yet, if the will of God be so, it is bet- ter hee ſuffer for well-doing, then for evill. Yet the love that hee beareth to the loyall Covenanters in the Nation, conſtraineth him to doe it, rather then his Country-men ſhould ever remaine in blindneſſe, under the power of Antichriſt.

Thine, who is the unworthieſt of all the ſervants of Chriſt, (who is content it ſhould be ſaid of his good name, that is as a precious oyntment, as Luther ſaid of Moſes his body, Let it die and rot, ſo God may be glorified, and Jeſus the Chriſt exalted in all his royall Offices;)

FRAN. CORNWELL.

A DESCRIPTION Of the Spirituall TEMPLE.

THe Spirituall Temple of the New Teſtament, the New Jeruſalem which came downe from heaven, the Bride prepared for the Lambe, the Lord Jeſus the Chriſt, Revel. 21.2. may not be unfitly compared to the materiall Temple of Jeruſalem, in the letter, whoſe foundation ſtone was of earth; whoſe materials were hewen ſtones, compacted into one edifice or Temple: the furniture thereof was an Altar, a Sacrifice, and a Prieſthood; who who were made after the law of a carnall Commandement, *Heb.*7.16. which was typicall, and was not to continue for ever; but onely to the time of Reformation, and then the glory of it should vanish away. In which materiall Temple, none must come thither to worship, but the circumcised Jewes and Proselytes; for the uncircumcised and unclean were an abomination, and must not enter in at the gates thereof; *Ezek.*44.6, 7. And for the defects the people of Israel and Judah committed in their worship, so long as they continued in their integrity, the high Priest went once every yeare into the Holy of Holiest, and that not without bloud, to offer up for himselfe, and for the errours of the people, *Heb.*9.7. Yea, and great were the priviledges that belonged to the Jewish Church: To them (saith Paul) pertained the adoption, and the glory, and the Covenants, and the giving of the Law, and the service of God, and the promises: Who are the fathers, and of whom, as concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever, Amen. Rom. 9. 4 5. But Christ being come an high Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not made of this building, Heb. 9. 11. reareth up a spirituall structure, or house.

1. Whose Foundation was the living stone, who hath life in himselfe, Jesus the Christ, 1 Cor. 3. 11. Seeing other foundation no man can lay, save that is laid, Jesus the Christ, 1 Pet. 2. 4. For there is salvation in none other, Acts 4. 12.

2. The spirituall Materialls are such as are borne of water and of the Spirit, Joh. 3. 5.

Quest. Who are they which are born of the Spirit?

Answ. Such men and women as through a Gospel Ministry are brought to beleeve, and manifest by their confession, that Jesus who was crucified, fied, dead, and riſen, is the Chriſt, is borne of God, 1 Joh. 5. 1. For no man can ſay (that is, confeſſe) that Jeſus is the Lord, but by the holy Spirit: and being born of water, they are manifeſted to be lively ſtones, that have received life from Jeſus the Chriſt, the living ſtone, 1 Pet. 2. 4. and fit ſpirituall materialls, to be ſet into the ſpirituall houſe, 1 Pet. 2. 5.

Queſt. 3. What is the Forme of this ſpirituall houſe?

Anſw. Union: They which gladly received the word were baptized, and were added unto the Church (and ſo were compacted into one ſpirituall houſe, whereof Jeſus the Chriſt is Lord: Heb 3. 6. But Chriſt as a Sonne over his owne houſe, whoſe houſe are we, if wee hold faſt the confidence, and the rejoycing of the hope firme unto the end:) And theſe continued ſtedfaſtly in the Apoſtles doctrine, and fellowſhip, in breaking of bread, and prayers, &c. Act 2. 41, 42.

The Furniture of this ſpirituall houſe ouſe of the new Teſtament, where-f Jeſus the Chriſt is the King, Prieſt nd Prophet, is a Prieſthood, Sarifice, and an Altar; but all ſpiri-uall.

Firſt, The Prieſts, whether they 1
e Male or Female, they are all ne in Chriſt, Gal. 3.28. Yea, every ember of this ſpirituall houſe are ade Kings and Prieſts to God the Faher, Revel. 1.6. Yea, and the whole Church united into a body, is a cho- n Generation, a royall Prieſthood, an oly Nation, a peculiar People; that they ould ſhew forth the vertues of him that ath called them out of darkneſſe into is marvellous light: Which in times aſt were not a people, but are now the eople of God, 1 Pet. 2.9,10.

Secondly, The Sacrifices that 2
heſe Prieſts offer, are all ſpiri-uall.

1. The firſt is Prayer, which the ſpirit of Chriſt formeth in the heart
f a beleever, whereby hee layeth pen all his ſpirituall and tempo- Pſal. 141. 3.
rall

rall wants unto God his Father, in the name and mediation of Jesus Christ, through whom hee hath received a promise to bee heard, and to have his request granted; *Joh.*16.23,24.

2. Secondly, Praise is a spirituall sacrifice, offered up unto God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name, *Heb.*13.15. Which is done by praising God in Psalmes, and Hymnes, and spirituall Songs, which the Spirit of Christ formeth in us, to sing, and make melody in our hearts to the Lord, *Ephes.*5.19. *Col.*3.16.

Quest. What is a Psalme?

Answ. It is a rehearsall of those speciall mercies and particular experience that the Lord hath done for a beleever, when his soule was brought into great adversity; and when the Lord delivered him, the Spirit of God in the dayes of his mirth bringeth into his mind, and causeth him with heart and lips to blesse the Lord

Lord in the Congregation, for his mercies received.

Thus Hannah, that was barren, the Lord made to keep house, and to be the joyfull mother of a sonne, singeth her song of praise, 1 Sam. 2. 1. My heart rejoyceth in the Lord, my horne is exalted in the Lord, my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; because I rejoyce in thy salvation.

Mary the mother of Jesus singeth her Magnificat; My soule doth magnifie the Lord, and my spirit rejoyceth in God my Saviour, Luk. 1. 46, 47.

So when the Lord had made good unto old Zacharias what hee had foretold him concerning his sonne John, Luk. 1. 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20. being filled with the Spirit, breaketh forth into his Eucharistia of praise, Luk. 1. 68. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for hee hath visited and redeemed his people.

Yea, and old aged Simeon singeth his Nunc dimittis, Lord, let thy servant depart in peace; for mine

eyes have ſeene thy ſalvation.

Nay, King David upon his har warbles out the ſpeciall mercie and favours, and deliverances Go had done for his ſoule, Pſal. 10 Bleſſe the Lord, O my ſoule, and within mee bleſſe his holy Name. Bleſ the Lord, O my ſoule, and forget n all his benefits. Who forgiveth all thi iniquities: who healeth all thy diſeaſe Who redeemeth thy life from deſtruct on: who crowneth thee with lovin kindneſſes, and tender mercies, &
Nay, the Pſalmiſt exhorteth th
Traveller, the ſicke man, and th
Mariner, to praiſe God for thei ſpeciall mercies received; Pſal. 107

Hence (holy Paul ſaith) I will pra with the ſpirit, and I will pray wit underſtanding alſo: I will ſing wit the ſpirit, and I will ſing with under ſtanding alſo. Elſe, when thou ſha bleſſe with the ſpirit, how ſhall he whic occupieth the roome of the unlearned ſay, Amen, at thy giving of thanks?
1 Cor. 14. 15, 16. So that to ſing bleſſe

blesse, and give thanks, in the language of holy Scripture, is all one.

Hence, as spirituall Prayer is a Sacrifice, Psal. 141. 2. offered up unto God our Father in the name of Christ, to comfort, solace, and cure a sad and grieved spirit; so spirituall praise is a Sacrifice, tendered to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, through Christ, Heb. 13. 16. by a merry and rejoycing Spirit, for the speciall mercies and blessings spirituall, and temporall, that the Lord hath bountifully bestowed on him. According to that of the Apostle Iames, Is any afflicted amongst you, let him pray? Is any merry amongst you, let him sing? James 5. 13.

3. Thirdly, Sacrifice, is a broken and a contrite heart for his sins, and his dayly failings he hath committed against a crucified Jesus: when God powreth upon his people the Spirit of grace and supplication, Zech. 12. 10. The more the Spirit of Christ openeth the eyes of their ſpirituall underſtanding, to looke up by faith upon a Jeſus, who for their ſinnes was peirced, the more will their hearts bee pierced with godly ſorrow for their ſinnes, which bringeth repentance to ſalvation, never to be repented of, 2 Cor. 7. 10, 11. and to loath themſelves in their owne eyes, for all their ſpirituall and corporall abominations, Ezek. 36.

Hence beleeving David the King, that ſorrowed after a godly manner, for all his iniquities, ſaid, The ſacrifices of God are a troubled ſpirit: A broken and contrite heart for ſinne, O God, thou wilt not deſpiſe, Pſalm 51. 17.

4. Sacrifice; is a free, ready, and cheerefull contribution to the poore and needy members of Chriſt, Hebr. 13. 16. To doe good and diſtribute forget not, for with ſuch a ſacrifice God is well pleaſed, Phil. 4. 18.

5. Sacrifice; is an holy life, which the Spirit of Chriſt formeth

in us. Rom. 12. 1. I beseech you brethren upon the mercifulnesse of God, that yee present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, and acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 1 Cor. 6.20. Yee are bought with a price; glorifie God therefore in body and spirits which are Gods.

Thirdly, The Altar, that sanctifieth the person and the Sacrifice, and maketh them both acceptable unto God, Is Jesus the Christ. 1 Pet. 2. 5. Yee also as lively stones (that have received life from Jesus the living stone) are built up a spirituall house, and holy Priest-hood to offer up spirituall sacrifices acceptable to God, through Jesus Christ.

To this Spirituall House, or Church of the New Testament, gathered according to the royall Commission of King Jesus, Matth. 28. 18, 19, 20. as the Churches in Judea, in Rome, Corinth, Galatia, Ephesus, &c. were constituted. The Promises were made:

1 First, that God would bee a Father to all those that did obey his voice, and come out from among the Jewes, Heathens, and Gentiles, and separate from their false waies, and superstitious worship, and touch not the uncleane thing, and he will receive you; And yee shall be his Sonnes and Daughters, saith the Lord, the Almighty, 2 Corinth 6. 17, 18.

2 Secondly, for all the defects that these commit against his Spirituall worship, they have this promise; The bloud of Iesus Christ, his Sonne, cleanseth them from all their sinnes, 1 Iohn 1. 7. 1 Iohn 2. 1, 2.

Thirdly, So many as have been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus; (that is, into the profession of Faith that the Apostles taught, to wit, that men should beleeve in a Crucified, dead, and risen Jesus, whom God hath exalted to be Lord and Christ) had the promise of receiving the gifts of the holy Spirit.

How

How prove you that to this Faith and Baptisme, the gift of the holy Spirit was granted. Quest.

Repent, and be baptized every one of you, in the name of Jesus, for the remission of sinnes, and yee shall receive the gifts of the holy Spirit. For the promise (of giving the holy Spirit) is to you, and to your children, (as Joel the Prophet foretold;) I will powre out my spirit upon all flesh; and your Sonnes and Daughters shall prophesie; and your old men shall dreame Dreames; and your young men shall see Visions, and also upon the servants, and upon the handmaides, in those daies I will powre out my spirit, Joel 2. 28, 29. And all that are a farre off, even so many as the Lord our God shall call, verse 29. and to the twelve in Asia the promise was made good, Acts 19. 5, 6, 7. And when this Spirit is come, he will guid thee into all truth; for he shall not speake of himselfe: but whatsoever he shall heare, that shall hee speake, and he will shew them things to Answ.

come, John 16. 13. Yea to be to the whole Church, as a River that ſhall make glad the City of God, Pſal. 46. 4. compared with John 7. 37. If any man thirſt, let him come to me and drinke; verſ. 38. Hee that beleeveth on me, as the Scripture hath ſaid, out of his belly ſhall flow rivers of living waters. Verſ. 39. (But this he ſpake of the Spirit, that they that beleeve on him ſhall receive: For the holy Spirit was not yet given, becauſe that Jeſus was not yet glorified.) But when Jeſus was by the right hand of his Father exalted, he received of the Father the promiſe of the holy Spirit; He hath ſhed forth this, which you now ſee and heare, Acts 22. 33.

4. Fourthly, All things that are loſt and accurſed to mankinde by the fall of the firſt Adam: are reſtored and ſanctified to the uſe of the beleevers, in and by the ſecond Adam, Jeſus the Chriſt. All things are yours: Whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, death, or things present, or things to come, all are yours, and yee are Christs, and Christ is Gods, 1 Cor 3.21, 22, 23. Hence the unbeleeving wife is sanctified to the use of the beleever: And shee being an unbeleever dwelling with the beleeving husband is sanctified, to bring forth an holy Seed to the use of the beleever: though the childe be borne in sinne, and by nature the child of wrath, as the most prophaneſt Pagans are, Psal. 51. 5. Epheſ. 2.3. Void of underſtanding, not able to diſtinguiſh betwixt good and evill: Yet, Titus 1. 15 Unto the pure, all things are pure: Nay, the meat and drinke and the Creature which God hath created, are ſanctified to his uſe; 1 Tim. 4. 3, 4, 5. For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refuſed; If it bee received with thankeſgiving: For it is ſanctified by the Word and Prayer.

ding with the beleever?

Answ. Great is the Priviledge, if he, or shee, will abide; for living under them, where the holy Spirit breatheth, and his lips drop as the honey combe; the sweet precious treasure of the Gospell of grace; What knowst thou, oh thou beleeving husband, whether God will not make thee instrumentall to save thy wife? though an unbeleever: Or what knowest thou, oh thou beleeving wife? whether God will not make thee instrumentall to save thy husband? 1 Cor. 7.16. And when hee is converted, hee will blesse God for you, (as David did for Abigail, in another case) Blessed be the Lord for you, and blessed be your good counsell, for you have been an instrument to convert a soule from the errour of his way, and save a soule from death, and hide a multitude of transgressions.

Quest. Is it not a greater Priviledge for an Infant to be borne of a beleever, then then to be borne of a Jew, a Turke, or an Heathen?

yea; For the Children borne of beleevers are brought up in holy instruction, and education from their childe-hood (as young Timothy was taught in the Scriptures from his youth, by his mother Eunice) seeing it is the charge, the holy Spirit hath laid upon beleeving Parents: Ephes. 6. 4. Fathers provoke not your children to wrath; But bring them up in the nurture and feare of the Lord. Whereas if their Parents were Jewes, and Turkes, and Heathens, the Parents being without Christ, being Aliants from the Common-wealth of Israel; and strangers from the covenant of Promise, having no hope, and without God in the world, Ephes. 2 12. Their children brought up with them, follow after Superstitious vanities; and serve dumbe Idolls, as their Teachers, and Fathers led them, 1 Cor. 12. 1.

Answ. 1 Tim. 3. 15.

Fiftly,

Fiftly, They are people live under precious promiſes: And hee hath promiſed, that the eye of his providence ſhall bee over them, all their dayes for good: He biddeth them not diſtract themſelves with immoderate carking
Mat. 6. 25. care: For what they ſhall eate, or what they ſhall drinke, or yet for their bodies, what they ſhall put on.

Reaſons Chriſt giveth are two.

Reaſ. 1. Firſt, Your heavenly Father knoweth yee have need of all theſe things.

2 Secondly, But ſeeke yee firſt the Kingdome of God, and his righteouſneſſe; and all theſe things ſhall be added unto you, Matth. 6. 33. Now the members of the Church of Chriſt, gathered according to Chriſts Inſtitution, Matth. 28. 18, 19, 20. are the Children of the Kingdome; and under the Promiſe, that God, as a Father, will provide for them; Therefore they are exhorted to bee carefull for nothing: But in every thing, by Prayer, and Supplications, with with thankesgiving, let their requeſt be made knowne unto God, Philip. 4. 6. Hence the Apoſtle exhorteth the Church of the Hebrewes; Let your converſation bee without covetouſneſſe; and bee content with ſuch things as yee have: For he hath ſaid, I will never faile thee, nor forſake thee: So that we may boldly ſay, the Lord is my helper. And I will not feare what man ſhall doe unto me, Hebr. 13. 5, 6.

Sixtly, They are under the promiſe of Audience, whenſoever they come to petition in the name of his Sonne Jeſus the Chriſt, for what they want, be they few or many: Matth. 18. 19. I ſay to you, that if two of you (beleevers baptized) agree in earth, as touching any thing that they ſhall aske, It ſhall bee done for them of my Father in Heaven. Verſ. 20. For where two or three are gathered together in my Name, (that is, by his Power, Authority, and Royall Commiſſion, he hath promiſed his preſence) there am I in the midſt of them;

them; to heare and returne them an answer to their request; yea, and to protect and preserve his Church, gathered in every Age, to the ends of the world. Thus at the Prayer of the Church, that was reproched, for holding forth the Faith of Jesus; the gift of the holy Spirit was given, to speake the Word of God with boldnes, Acts 4. 31. At the earnest suit and intercession the Church made unto God, Peter the Apostle was released out of his Imprisonment, and brought to the house where they were praying, Acts 12.

7 Seventhly, Lastly, there is no Society hath such Priviledges, as this Spirituall House, which is constituted according to the Magna Charta of the Gospel, Matth. 28. 18, 19, 20. Marc. 16. 15, 16. though while they are in the World, they are for the Faith of Jesus the Christ killed all the day long (either in their good names, by reproch, and slander; or in their estates, by the mighty mighty Nimrods of these oppressing daies, they are exposed to plunder and spoiling, which they are to take patiently, Hebr. 10. 32. or in their Liberties to be imprisoned, for contending for the Faith of Jesus the Christ, 1 John 5. 1. Once given unto the Saints, or forbid to preach any more in his name, as the Apostle Peter was, Acts 4 18. or to have their lives taken violently from them, as James the Apostle was by the Tyrant Herod, Acts 12. 2. 3. And accounted, But as sheepe for the slaughter, (regarded no more by the Wolves in sheepes clothing, then the bloudy Butcher regardeth the life of his sheepe;) yet the poorest member amongst them is rich in faith, and heire of the Kingdome which God hath promised to them that love him, James 2. 5. Yea, and the whole body of beleevers, walking in that faith and order, Christ hath prescribed, with perseverance in the faith unto the ende, shall be more then conquerours querours, through him that loved them, Rom. 8.36.

Yea, next to the Paradiſe of glorie; there is no Society like to this Spirituall Corporation of Saints, where the Lord will dwell in the middeſt of them, and give them light: Hence was the beloved Apoſtles Utinam, Oh that you had fellowſhip with us, 1 John 1.3.

Object. Why was it ſuch a Priviledge?

Anſw. Truly, our fellowſhip is with the Father, and with his Sonne Jeſus Chriſt: So that the Father, Sonne, and holy Spirit, and Saints, make up but one Society, or Family, where God will dwell, to comfort and ſolace them: the good Angels their guard, to protect and ſave them (as they did once the Prophet Eliſha from the troop of the Aramites, 2 King. 6.17.) ſeeing they pitch their tents round about them that feare him, Pſal. 34.7. And are ſent forth to be miniſtring Spirits, to miniſter unto them that are heires of ſalvation, Heb. 1.14.

And

And when they die, they resigne their spirits to God that gave them, as the Proto-Martyr Stephen did, Lord Jesus receive my spirit, Acts 7. 59. to remaine in the mansion prepared for the spirits of just men departed. So that happy are the people that are in such a case; yea, blessed are those Churches that have the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ for their God.

Quest. What is the Antichristian faith?

Answ. It is to deny that Jesus (whom they confesse dyed to take away the sinnes of the world) is the Christ.

Quest. How prove you that?

Answ. 1 Joh. 2. 22. Who is a liar, (viz. borne of the evill one, who is a liar, and the father of lies, and abode not in the truth, Joh. 8. 44.) but hee that denyeth that Jesus is the Christ? (viz. the eternall King, Prophet, Priest of his Church, bought with his owne bloud) hee is Antichrist (an enemy and an adversary to Jesus the Christ) that denyeth the Father and the the Sonne. For he that denyeth the Sonnes authority, to be the eternall King and Prophet of the Church of the New Teſtament, to the end of the world, according to the royall Commiſſion hee received from the Father of glory, when hee raiſed him from the dead, *Mat.*28.18,19,20. compared with *Mar.*16.15,16. aſwell as his eternall Prieſt, that ever liveth to make interceſsion to God for him, Heb.7.25. hee denyeth the Father that ſanctified the Sonne, and ſent him into the world, *Joh.*10.36. and raiſed him from the dead, and exalted him to be Lord and Chriſt, *Act.*2.36. *Epheſ.*1.20,21,22,23.

Queſt. What Congregations deny that Jeſus is the Chriſt?

Anſw. Even all ſuch as build their houſe upon the hay and ſtubble of mans inventions, and not upon the precious ſtone, Jeſus the Chriſt, in whom onely ſalvation is found, *Act.*4.12.

Of which ſort of builders are theſe:

The

The first sort are those that build their house upon the person of Peter, and so successively upon the Pope. These the Spirit of God discovereth to be foolish builders; because there is no salvation in Peter, nor Pope: the Apostle Peter himselfe being the Judge to decide the controversie, Acts 4. 11. Peter speaking of Jesus the Christ, saith, This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Ver. 12. Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given amongst men, whereby wee must be saved.

The second sort are those that build their house upon the Office of Peter, and so successively on the Officers: So that if the Officers united into a body in Councell erre, the whole Church that receiveth their faith, from their Edicts and Decrees, erre also. Now, that Councells may erre, and have erred, in things appertaining to God, appeareth in the 21. Article of the Church of England, by Law eſtabliſhed; as appeareth. Adoration of Images was eſtabliſhed in the ſecond Generall Councell of Nice. The Popiſh Clergy were advanced above all earthly Princes, by the Councell of Lateran. And Prieſts prohibited to marry, which is honourable amongſt all men, Heb. 13. 4. by the ſaid Councell. The late Trident Councell erred in many things groſly; as in exalting the traditions of men to be of equall authority with the word of God; Trident. Seſſ. 4. Decret. Together with the invocation of creatures. Or any other Councell, that ſhould decree, that grace cometh by generation; or, Beleevers ſhould beget beleevers: or, Chriſtians beget Chriſtians: then the whole Church that build their faith upon ſuch corrupt Councells may erre alſo.

The third ſort are all thoſe that build their houſe upon another mans faith, faith, and not basing or laying the foundation aright, on the Gospel faith; to wit, to beleeve in a crucified, dead, and risen Jesus, whom God hath exalted to be the Christ: If they erre in the object of their faith, Jesus the Christ, though they owne him to be Jesus their eternall Priest, to make intercession to God for them; yet if they deny him their eternall King and Prophet, in all his outward institutions, in admitting of members into his spirituall Kingdome, they build but on a sandy foundation, and not on the sure rock Jesus the Christ.

These Congregations, when the storme of Gods indignation bloweth upon them, it will faile them; becauſe they were so fooliſh as to build upon the sand, Mat. 7. 26. and not upon the immoveable rock Jesus the Christ; seeing other foundations no man can lay, save that is laid, Jesus the Christ, 1 Cor. 3. 11. Paul calleth him, The corner stone, Ephes. 2. 20.

Peter, The living ſtone, 1 Pet. 2. 4. Yea, The chiefe corner ſtone, elect and precious: hee that beleeveth on him ſhall not be confounded, 1 Pet. 2 6. Vnto you that beleeve (in Jeſus the Chriſt) hee is precious, 1 Pet. 2. 7.

Now, the true Spouſe of Chriſt can have no communion with ſuch as deny Jeſus the Chriſt their onely Rock, in whom ſalvation onely is found, Act. 4. 12.

Firſt, Becauſe ſhee is a loyall Spouſe, that hath no head, no huſband, no Lord, no Law-giver, in things appertaining to the conſcience, but royall King Jeſus: no will admit any other pretended Spouſe to have fellowſhip with her that is partly governed by the word of Chriſt, and partly with the chaffe and ſtraw of their owne traditions in Gods ſpirituall worſhip, or in admitting of members into his ſpirituall houſe: Knowing, that in ſo doing ſhee ſhould be found to be a Monſter, that hath two heads; or else like to that proud harlot Rome, that hath a divided heart, that goeth a whoring after two husbands; Christ, and Antichrist.

Secondly, This loyall Spouse her love toward her husband the Lord Jesus the Christ, is tender and compassionate love; shee cannot endure to heare her husband should bee spoyled of any of his royall dignities, either his Kingly or Prophetical, as well as Priestly Offices: Shee cannot with harlot Rome bee content with a divided Christ; but with the true mother shee must joyn onely with them that will have a whole Christ, or no Christ. Christ her King, and his Commission to bee eternall, Mat. 28. 18, 19, 20. Christ her Prophet, whose voyce shee must onely heare; as the Father of glory hath given her in charge to doe, Mat. 17. 5. Yea, and the extent how farre, in all things, whatsoever hee shall say; Act. 3. 22. Knowing, the danger followeth, her ſoule ſhall be cut off from his people, Act. 3. 23. reckoned no ſheep of his fold, Joh. 10. no Spouſe of her royall husband, Epheſ. 5. 24. as well as her eternall Prieſt, to make interceſſion for her, Heb 7. 25. becauſe ſhee knoweth, Chriſt divided, becometh no Chriſt to the divider: And this, according to the Vulgar Latine, is ſolvere Jeſum, to diſſolve Jeſus, to receive him onely in part, and not in the whole; which is the ſpirit of Antichriſt, &c.

Laſtly, The Chriſtian Church, Chriſts loyall Spouſe, knoweth that her royall husband is jealous of his glory, and will not endure his Worſhip ſhould be corrupted with the inventions of man; therefore ſhee deſerteth the communion of all ſuch as have forſaken Chriſt, the fountaine of living waters, and dig to themſelves ciſternes, broken ciſternes, that will hold no water. Hence it is as poſſible for light and darkneſſe to agree in one ſubject, and the Temple of God, and Idols: as the Church that hath Christ for her head, and the Word to bee the rule of her Doctrine, and Government. And those Congregations that are governed, partly by the Word of Christ, and partly by their owne Traditions, should have communion together.

Temple

But have Gods Elect in Babylon any power of themselves to returne out of the Land of their spirituall Captivity under Antichrist. Quest.

Nay: Untill God enlighten them, that are darke; and quicken them that are dead, and cause them to returne, by being obedient to a Gospel Ministery: as formerly he brought in our fore-fathers, which were Gentiles aswell as wee, and strangers from the common-wealth of Israel, and Aliants from the covenant of Promise, having no hope, and without God in the world, by opening their blind eyes: and turning them from darkenesse to light, and Answ.

from the power of Satan, unto God; that they might receive the remiſsion of their ſinnes, and an inheritance amongſt them which are ſanctified by Faith in Chriſt Jeſus, Acts 26. 18. Now as many as ſhall bee obedient to the voice of the Lord, will be unequally yoaked no more with unbeleevers, but wil become obedient unto the voice of the holy Spirit, and come out from amongſt them, and be ſeparate; and touch no more any of the uncleane thing; and then the Lord will make good his promiſe: To be a Father unto you, and yee ſhall be his Sonnes and Daughters. Having therefore theſe Promiſes (dearely beloved) Let us cleanſe our ſelves (even ſo many poore Iaphets, as God ſhall perſwade to dwell in the Tents of Shem;) from all filthyneſſe, both of the fleſh, and of the ſpirit, perfecting holyneſſe in the feare of the Lord, 2 Cor. 6. 14, 17, 18. Chap. 7, 1.

Obiect. If all Churches come out of Babylon

hylan by degrees; then you condemn all Churches that are not of your judgement?

We condemne no Churches that are built upon the tryed stone: the precious Corner Stone; the sure Foundation, Esay 28. 16. Jesus the Christ. Seeing other foundation can no man lay, save that is layd Jesus Christ, 1 Cor. 3. 11. Whom Paul calleth the corner stone, Ephes. 2. 20. Peter, the living stone, 1 Pet. 2. 4. Yea, the chiefe corner stone, elect and precious, 1 Pet. 2. 6. For there is salvation in none other, Acts 4. 12. Answ. 1.

2 And that holdeth the Gospell Faith: namely, that they beleeve in a crucified, dead, and risen Jesus (through whom they obtaine remission of sinnes) whom God hath exalted to be Lord, and Christ, viz. eternall King, Priest and Prophet, and head of the body of his Church, Ephe. 1. 22, 23. which must be preached among all Nations, beginning at Jerusalem, Luke 24. 46, 47, 48. And constitu-constituted according to the Commission given to the Apostles, Math. 28. 19, 20. which is left as a rule for the gathering of all Churches, to the ends of the World; seeing the Word of Christ is eternall. The word of the Lord endureth for ever; and this is the Word, which by the Gospell is preached unto you, 1 Pet. 1. 25. Yea, and after their apostasie, under the spirituall Babylonish captivity, to reforme any errour crept into the Churches of the old and new Testament: It was their holy custome, to reduce all things to their first Institution: Quod primum verum, that which was first is true, according to Tertullians judgement. For instance, so did David in the miscarriage of the Arke of God, 1 Chro. 15. 2. 12. 13. And it was zealous Iosiahs rule (whom the Spirit of God so commendeth in Scripture, that none was like before him for his Reformation) 2 Chr. 34. 31. The like example tooke Nehemiah after his his returne from the Babyloniſh Captivity, Neh. 10.29. To obſerve all the Commandements of the Lord, and the Statutes which Moſes the ſervant of the Lord gave them to keepe. So in reforming of the particular Churches of the New Teſtament, whereof Jeſus the Chriſt is head, King, and Prophet (if ever they be rightly brought out of their Spirituall Babyloniſh captivity under Antichriſt) we muſt reforme all the Innovations, as the Lord Jeſus himſelfe reformed the long-ſpread errour of Bygamie and Polygamy. Non fuit ſic ab initio, From the beginning it was not ſo, Matth. 19. 7, 8. Yea, and we muſt ſo follow Paul (as he followed Chriſt, 1 Cor. 11. 1.) in reforming the abuſes crept into the Church of Corinth, reducing all things to the firſt Inſtitution: With a what I received from the Lord, that I delivered unto you, 1 Cor. 11. 23.

2 We condemne none that are comming out of Babylon, that make enquiry quiry after truth (as the daughters of Ierusalem did of the Spouse, Cant. 5. 9. What is thy beloved more then another beloved; oh thou fairest among women? What is thy beloved more then others beloveds, that thou dost so charge us? And truth being revealed to them, joyne with us in the practise of truth, (as the Daughters of Ierusalem did with the Spouse, Cant. 6. 1. Whither is thy beloved gone, oh thou fairest among women? Whither is thy beloved turned aside that we may seeke him with thee?) The Spouse giveth them a gentle, and a loving direction, Cant. 6 2. My beloved is gone into his garden, to gather Spices: to feed in the garden, and to gather Lillies.

3 But wee onely condemne those that deny Jesus the Christ (though they owne him their eternall Priest, that ever liveth, to make intercession to God for them Hebr. 7. 25.) yet they deny him their King and Prophet in all his outward administrations, in admitting of members into his Spirispirituall Kingdome; stablished according to Christs eternall Commission, *Mat.*28. 18,19,20. and are built upon wood, hay, and stubble, 1 *Cor.*3.12. Now though these pretend to come out of Babylon, yet they persecute, scoffe, and deride all poore weake enquiring soules, for seeking after the pure wayes of that spirituall Worship, that Jesus the Christ hath appointed, and established in all the Churches of the Saints, gathered according to the Primitive pattern, *Act.*2.41 42,43. as the watchman aid the Spouse, *Cant.*5.7.

Wee condemne onely those that sinne through a wilfull contempt; because the evill of their halfe-way Reformation is discovered by them, whom God hath raised up to declare his truth in an evill day. Now, when these sorts of men shall bee so farre from repenting of all the evill that they have done to the servants of the Lord Jesus, in this kind, that they still persevere in persecuting 4.

ting them for the truth they deliver, (as the Jewes did of old the Lord Jesus, and their own Prophets, as it is written, 1 Thes. 2. 14. For yee, brethren, became followers of the Churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jesus; for yee have also suffered like things of your owne countrymen, even as they of the Jewes: Verse 15. Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their owne Prophets, and have persecuted us, and they please not God, and are contrary to all men; Ver. 16. Forbidding us to preach to the Gentiles, that they may be saved, that they may fill up the measure of their owne iniquity, that the wrath of God may come upon them unto the uttermost.) Upon these sorts of men, not we, but the Lord Jesus hath set this dreadfull doome, This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men love darknesse rather then light, because their deeds are evill. For every one that doth evill, hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, least his deeds should bee discovered, vered, John 3. 19, 20.

Not wee, but the good Spirit of our God condemneth all those that linger after false and Antichristian wayes: When Babylons down-fall is pronounced, Revel. 14.8. Babylon is fallen, it is fallen, that great City; because shee made all nations drunk with the wine of her fornications. V 9. After that followed a third Angel, that cryed with a loud voyce saying, if any man (be hee high or low, rich or poore, noble or ignoble, bond or free, male or female) worship the Beast (that Antichrist of Rome, that exalteth himselfe above all that is called God, or worshipped) or his Image, (that is, his Government, that receive their power and jurisdiction from, in, or under him) or his mark, (viz. his Canons, Constitutions, Edicts or Decrees) into their hands, (viz. to fight, or write in the defence of them) or into their foreheads, (to plead or preach for them) mark their doome, The same (not that it. 42. cap 3. as Doctor Willet in his Synopsis Papismi de baptismo infanti-um, citeth: That whereas Circumcision (by the commandement of God) was conferred upon the infants as well as the elder sort; so Baptisme also, which succeedeth in the roome thereof, and is more generall to men and women, must be conferred to both. By which Decree, the Nations in name and title have been christianized, (though in the power they have denyed it) and have killed many a precious Saint, under the brand of Hereticks, for opposing it: whereby, the inhabitants of the earth have beene made drunk with the wine of her fornication, Revel. 17. 2.

But the Spirit of God describeth the true Church, after Babylons down-fall, Revel. 14. 12. Here is the patience of Saints: here are they which keep the commandements of God, and the faith of Jesus. And is it not a commandement of God, that all Churches ſhould be gathered according to the Commiſſion of King Jeſus? *Mat.*28. 18, 19,20. *Mar.*16. 15, 16.

6 Wee onely condemne thoſe Churches (that perſecute Chriſt in his members, from city to city, (as Saul did, *Act.*26. 9, 10.) for keeping the commandements of God, and the faith of Jeſus, Mat. 16.16. 1 *Joh.*5. 1.) as no true Churches of Chriſt; but rather Synagogues of Satan: for, no hurtfull thing ſhall be in the holy mountaine, Eſay 65.25. The wolfe and the lamb ſhall fold together; and the lion ſhall eat ſtraw like an oxe; and the duſt ſhall be the ſerpent eat: They ſhall not deſtroy in all my holy mountaine, ſaith the Lord. As likewiſe, Eſay 11.6,7,8,9.

7 If the Churches that men now contend for (coming out of Babylon by degrees) ſhould crucifie Chriſt in his members, for contending for the faith of Jeſus the Chriſt, once given to the Saints, Mat. 16.

6, 17, 18. yea, reproach, whip, crop, and persecute them, for holding the Commission of their royall Master Jesus the Christ, Mat. 28. 18, 19, 20. that Antichrist by his Decretals, and Popish Councels, hath defaced, (as of late the Arch-Prelate of England did some Worthies, that stood for a Reformation according to the light God discovered unto them) then they in such an estate were no true Churches of Christ; but Congregations that are hardened, and speake evill of the way before the multitude, and are to be separated from, Act. 19. 9.

But if they be meek, and gentle, peaceable, and willing to bee instructed, inquiring after truth, it being discovered by the true Spouse (whom God hath enlightened to direct them,) wee contemne not those daughters; but rejoyce in their fellowship, tender them as lambes of Christ, that have a longing desire to be added to that sheep-fold, whereof Jesus is the true shepherd; though as yet ignorant of the way of truth in many things. But as for the neutrall party, that are neither hot nor cold, but lukewarme, God will spue them out of his mouth, Revel. 3. 15, 16.

Quest. Whether the Church of Christ is not now to be recovered out of an Antichristian estate, that denyeth that Jesus is the Christ, 1 Joh. 2, 22. and crucifieth Christ in his members; as the Church of the New Testament in the Apostolicall times, was gathered out of the Nationall Church of the Jewes (that was of old once a true state untill they crucified Jesus the Christ in his humane nature; whom God raised from the dead, and exalted him to be Lord and Christ, Act. 2. 36.) if God shall by his Gospel-Ministery wound and prick their hearts for their sinne of crucifying Christ in his members, that confesse the faith

f Jesus the Christ, 1 Joh. 5. 1. (as ee did once the Jewes that crucifi- d the Christ, their Messias, in his wne person, Acts 2. 37.) so that ney trembling cry out, Men and rethren, what shall we doe?

Must not the Reply bee that Answ. oyce that the holy Spirit spake by ne mouth of Peter, Repent, and be aptized every one of you in the name f Jesus for the remission of sinnes: nd yee shall receive the gift of the ho- Spirit. For the promise is to you, and your children, and to them that are farre off, even so many as the Lord ur God shall call. And with many her words hee said, (and must not yee doe so likewise? seeing what- ever things were written afore-time, ere written for our learning, Rom. 15. .) Save your selves from this unto- ard generation. Seeing the same vrath is fallen on them (as was on he Jewes, for killing the Lord Jesus nd their owne Prophets, 1 Thes. 2. 4, 15, 16.) seeing they crucifie

Christ in his members, that contend for the faith of Jesus the Christ (as Paul did, Act. 9.) Now so many as shall gladly receive this word and be baptized, shall be saved from wrath; as Noah and his family were saved in the Ark, from perishing by water; seeing it is written, by the like figure Baptisme saveth, 1 Pet. 3. 20, 21.

Reas. 1. The Reason is, first, Because the time of our ignorance God hath winked at; but now (seeing light is come and truth is revealed) the Lord Jesus commandeth us every where to repent, &c. Acts 2. 38. Else our condemnation will be heavie, Joh. 3. 19,20. This is the condemnation, light is come, and men love darknesse more then light, because their deeds are evill, &c.

2 Secondly, Because we have with Paul and the Jaylor, in the time of our ignorance, beaten and persecuted Jesus the Christ in his members, that contend for the faith

1 Joh.

1 Joh. 5. 1. and wee thought within our selves we ought to doe something contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth (as Paul did in the time of his ignorance, Act. 26. 9.) If God shall by his good Spirit convince us of the evills that wee have done, so as that we trembling cry, Men and brethren, what shall we doe? Must not the reply be, Repent? &c. Act. 2. 38. Else, shall they not be disobedient to the voyce of the Spirit that speaketh? seeing Paul and the Jaylor arose and were baptized, Acts 9. 18. & 16. 33.

Thirdly, Because there is no promise of salvation to be found in the Antichristian states, that deny Jesus the Christ, 1 Joh. 2. 22. The Reasons are, Reas. 3.

First, Because all the promises of God are made over to them onely that beleeve in Jesus the Christ, 2 Cor. 1. 20. Hee that beleeveth in the Sonne of God hath life, and he that beleeveth not in the Sonne of God, hath not life; 1 but the wrath of God abideth on him, John 3. 36.

2 Secondly, Till we did beleeve in Jesus Christ, we were (in respect of any visible calling) without Christ; being Aliants from the Common-wealth of Israel, and strangers from the Covenant of Promise; having no hope, and without God in the world. But once beleevers in Christ, Yee who were sometime afarre off, are made nigh by his blood, and through him have accesse by one Spirit unto the Father. And are no more strangers and forraigners: but fellow-citizens with the Saints, and of Gods houshold, &c. Ephes. 2. 12, 13. 18, 19, 20, 21, 22.

3 Thirdly, Because they in denying the Sonnes authority to bee the King and Prophet of his Church in all his outward administrations, in admitting members into his spirituall kingdome, Math. 28. 19. 20. though they own him their Priest, that ever liveth to make reconciliation to God for them, Hebr. 7. 25. They deny deny the Father, that sanctified the Sonne, and sent him into the world, and raised him from the dead, and exalted him to be the Lord and Christ, Act. 2.36. Ephes. 1.20, 21, 22.

4. Fourthly, Because the Antichristian state deny the Sonne, 1 Iohn 2.22, 23. Whom the Father of glory commandeth us to heare, Math. 17.5. Yea, and the Apostle Peter citing the Testimony of Moses, saith, Truely Moses said to the Fathers, The Lord your God will raise up a Prophet from the midst of your bretheren, like unto me; him shall yee heare in all things whatsoever he shall say: and the danger followeth. It shall come to passe, that every soule which refuseth to heare the voice of that Prophet, that soule shall be cut off from his people, Acts 3, 22, 23.

The Reasons are these.

First, If Jesus the Christ bee not our Prophet to teach us, hee will not be our King to protect us: Math. 28.10. Teach them, saith Christ, to observe obserue all things that I command you: And loe, I am alwaies with you to the end of the world.

2 Secondly, If Christ be no Prophet to teach us his heavenly Fathers reuealed will, he wil be no Prieſt to intercede for us, Ioh. 17. 20. I pray not for theſe alone, but for all them that ſhall beleeue in me through their word. Now it is not their word that they ſpeake, but what they have received from Chriſt to ſpeake. Seeing it is written 2 Iohn 9. Whoſoeuer tranſgreſſeth and abideth not in the doctrine of Chriſt, hath not God: but he that abideth in the doctrine of Chriſt, hath both the Father and the Sonne. Verſe 10. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrin, receiue him not to houſe, neither bid him God ſpeed. Verſe 11. For hee that biddeth him God ſpeed is partaker of his evill deeds.

3 Thirdly, If Chriſt bee no Prophet to teach us: Hee will bee no Judge to acquit us. Iohn 12. 48. Hee which rejecteth mee, and receiveth veth not my words, hath one that judgeth him; the words that I have spoken, the same shall judge us in the last day. And then like the wise Merchant, let us cast up our accouut, what it will profit us? If by denying to heare the voice of our Prophet Jesus, we gaine the world, and in the meane season loose our precious soules. Knowing the Sonne of man shortly will come to judge the world: And then they which be ashamed of him, and his words, in this sinnefull and adulterous generation, of them will the Sonne of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with all his holy Angels, Marke 8. 38.

Fourthly, If we joyne with them that deny Jesus the Christ, 1 Iohn 2.22. and will be partakers of their sinnes, wee shall bee partakers of their plagues, Revel. 18. 4. And for our unbeliefe, in persisting to persecute them, that contend for the Faith of Jesus the Christ, Math. 16 16,17, 18, 4.

18. The wrath of God abideth on them, 1 Theſſ. 2. 14, 15, 16.

Fiftly, There is no promiſe to any people, that deny the Faith and Baptiſme of Jeſus the Chriſt, that they waiting ſhall receive the gifts of the Spirit. But rather that they ſhall be given up of God to ſtrong deluſions, to beleeve a lye, 2 Theſſ. 2. 10. Becauſe they receiued not the loue of the truth, that they might bee ſaued. Verſe 11. For this cauſe, God ſhall giue them up to ſtrong deluſions to beleeue a lye. Verſe 12. That all might bee damned that beleeue not the truth, but haue pleaſure to continue in vnrighteous practiſes. 2 Theſſ. 2 10, 11, 12.

Obiect. But there is a promiſe to all poore enquiring ſoules, that in the time of their ignorance and vnbeliefe, have denyed Jeſus the Chriſt, their eternall King and Prophet, aſwell as Prieſt, and now by the Spirit of God being convicted, that they are lyars and Antichriſtian an, that deny the Father and the Son, 1 Iohn 2. 22. And being pricked at the heart, now trembling, cry out, Men and brethren what shall we doe?

The Spirit of Christ in the inspired Scripture, saith: Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Iesus for the remission of sins, and yee shall receive the gifts of the holy Spirit, Acts 2. 38. Answ.

We have an instance of twelve Disciples found at Ephesus, baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus, and and Paul laid his hands on them, and they spake with new tongues, and Prophesied, as Ioel the Prophet foretold, Ioel 2. 28. I will powre out of my Spirit upon all flesh, &c. 2

But were those Disciples Paul found at Ephesus (that had beene baptized by Iohn the Paptist) rebaptized by Paul? Object.

In answering this objection, I conceive: First, there was a vast difference betweene Faith and Baptisme; Iohn preached before the Answ.

ſuffering, death, and reſurrection of Chriſt: And the Faith and Baptiſme Chriſt commanded his Diſciples to preach after his Reſurrection, Luke 24. 46, 47.

Secondly, Iohn the Baptiſt preached the Baptiſme of repentance, ſaying that they ſhould beleeve on him that was to come after him, Acts 19. 3, 4. Whom Chriſt himſelfe declareth to his Apoſtles, being come in the fleſh that he muſt goe up to Ieruſalem, fall into the hands of ſinners, bee killed and the third day riſe againe, but the Diſciples underſtood it not, though it were declared to them, and they were afraid to aske him, Mark. 9. 31, 32. Much more Iohn underſtood not, that Chriſt ſhould dye, and riſe againe from the dead.

1 Firſt, becauſe it was not revealed to him, though Iohn ſent two of his Diſciples to demand of him, Whether it were he that ſhould come, or ſhall we looke for another? Chriſt anſwereth, Goe tell Iohn, the blind ſee

th

he deafe heare, the dead are raiſed, and to the poore the Goſpell is preached, and bleſſed is he that is not offended in me, Math. 11, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Secondly, Chriſt ſaith of Johns: This was that Elias that was to come, that ſhould prepare the way before him, Mal. 3. 1. 2

Thirdly, Hee was the greateſt Prophet borne amongſt women: for he ſaw him come in the fleſh, and ſaid to two Diſciples, Behold that Lamb of God which taketh away the ſinnes of the world, John 1. 29. Yet hee that is the leaſt member in the Kingdom of heaven is greater then Johns: becauſe after the death and reſurrection of Chriſt, they could preach and declare that great myſtery of godlineſſe, 1 Tim. 3. 16. that Iohn the Baptiſt never knew. 3

But the Apoſtles after the reſurrection of Chriſt, he having opened their underſtanding, that they might underſtand the Scriptures, ſaid unto them, That it behoveth Chriſt to ſuf- ſuffer, and riſe againe the third day, that repentance and remiſsion of ſinnes ſhould bee preached in his name, amongſt all Nations, beginning at Ieruſalem: and yee are witneſſes of theſe things, Luke 24.46,47,48.

Again, Iohn the Baptiſts baptiſme was the Baptiſme of water onely but had no promiſe of the holy Spirit annexed, as himſelfe confeſſeth, Math. 3.11. I indeed baptize you with water to repentance: But he that commeth after mee is mightier then I; he ſhall Baptize you with the holy Spirit and with fire.

2 Secondly, The holy Spirit was not to bee given in his full meaſure untill Chriſt was glorified. Iohn 7.39 compared with Acts 2.33.

But to the Faith and Baptiſme the Apoſtles preached after the death, and reſurrection, and aſcention of Chriſt into glory, there was a promiſe of giving the gifts of the holy Spirit, Acts 2.38. Repent, and be Baptized, every one of you in the nam of Iesus for the remission of sinnes: and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit: as the Prophet Ioel foretold, Ioel 2. 28. and the twelve at Ephesus received, Acts 19. 6.

I affirme, that the twelve at Ephesus, that had beene Baptized by Iohn, or his Disciples Ministry, were re-baptized by Paul, or them that were with him in the time of his Ministery; for these ensuing Reasons. Answ. 2.

First, In respect of the different dispensations. The Faith and Baptisme that these twelve had received from Iohn, or his Disciples Ministerie, though it was a saving Faith all the dayes of Iohn and his Disciples Ministry, yet it was not a saving Faith after the death, and resurrection, and ascention of Christ into glory, in the time of Pauls Ministery: For Iohn and his Disciples preached the Baptisme of Repentance; saying, that they should beleeve on Reas. 1.

him that was to come after him: that was in Jesus Christ, that was to bee crucified. But Paul and Timotheus preached, that Jesus indeed is come, and crucified, dead, and risen, through whom all that beleeve shall have remission of sinnes, Acts 13. 38, 39. 1 Cor. 15. 3, 4.

Reas. 2. Secondly, Because this Faith that they had received from Iohn, or his Disciples, in the time of Pauls Ministery would not save them: Because they denyed the Resurrection of Christ from the dead: Looking onely for him to come, and to be crucified; and were ignorant that he was crucified, dead, and risen: And then according to the doctrine of the Holy Spirit, by the mouth of Paul, 1 Cor. 15. 14. If Christ be not risen, our Faith is vaine, and our Preaching is vaine.

Reas. 3. Thirdly, If the Faith and Baptisme of Iohn, that declared that there was a Jesus to come to bee bee Crucified; and the Faith and Baptimse of Paul that declareth that Christ dyed for our sins, according to the Scriptures, and rose againe the third day according to the Scripture, 1 Cor. 15. 3, 4. Be all one for substance (as some of the Learned amongst us affirme) then are wee found false witnesses of God, because wee have testified of God; that he hath raised up his Sonne Iesus Christ, whom he raised not up if the Faith and Baptisme of Iohn be in force at his day, 1 Cor. 15. 15.

Fourthly, If the Faith and Bap- Reas. 4. tisme of Iohn be in force under the time of Pauls Ministery, Acts 9. 3, 4. Then was the preaching of Paul vaine, and the faith of all that received his Gospell, (to wit, That Christ dyed for our sinnes, according to the Scriptures, and rose againe the third day, 1 Cor. 15. 3, 4.) vaine, and that they were yet in their sinnes, 1 Cor.

15.16.17. Neither were the gifts o the Spirit then given: For they wer not to be shed forth until Christ wa risen and ascended up into glor
Acts 2.33. which is blaspemous t imagine, or to divulge and declar abroad.

For these Reasons, I conceiv there was a nullity of the Faith an Baptisme of John, which was t continue but till the death and resur rection of Christ: And the twelv in Asia were re-baptized into th Faith of a crucified, dead, and ri sen Jesus, whom God exalted to b
the Christ. And Paul layd his hand on them, and they received the hol Spirit, Acts 19.5.6.

Object. May it not rather bee, that wit Apollos, they were more fully instru cted what it was to bee Baptized in to the name of the Lord Jesus.

Answ. 1. Nay; Because there was as vas a difference, according to the distinction I formerly layd downe, betweene

weene the Faith and Baptisme of John and his Disciples before the death of Christ, and the Faith and Baptisme of Paul; and the residue of the Apostles after the death and resurrection of Christ: As now is betwixt the Jewes at this day: and is that truely beleeve in Jesus the Christ, 1 *Joh.*5.1. Whosoever beleeveth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God. For the Jewes at this day beleeve (as John and his Disciples then taught, That they should beleeve on him that should come, Acts 19.4.) even in that Messiah whom they wait for. And we beleeve (as Peter and Paul then taught) That Christ indeed is come, and crucified, dead, and risen, and exalted to bee the Christ, Acts. 2. 36 Ephes. 1. 20, 21, 22, 23.

So that, if the Jewish Faith be not a saving Faith at this day; Seeing they looke for a Messiah to come: when indeed hee is already come, and crucified, dead, risen and ascended ded to glory; So that we wait now for a Saviour from heaven, Jesus that shall deliver us from the wrath to come, 1 Thess. 1. 10. Neither could the Faith of those twelve Disciples Paul found at Ephesus bee a saving Faith in the time of his Ministery because Christ was come (though they were ignorant of it, being at that time in Asia) and had finished all those things that were written of him in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalmes, Luke 24. 44. But as neither the twelve Disciples of Christ could not understand that all things were fulfilled of him untill hee had opened their understandings, that they might understand the Scriptures: And then they rightly understood the end of his suffering, death, and resurrection: namely, That repentance, and remission of sinnes, should bee preached in his name among all Nations, beginning at Jerusalem, Luke 24. 45, 46, 47, &c.

So

So neither could these twelve Paul found at Ephesus know it; because, they had not heard, whether there were any holy Spirit, yea, or nay; and so were ignorant of the death, and resurrection of Christ, untill the Lord was pleased by his good Spirit to open their understanding, by the ministery of Paul; therefore it is written, When they heard it, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus, Act. 19.5.

Was there any necessity that they should be Re-baptized; would not a more perfect instruction have served? Object. 2.

Nay: Because those twelve were departed into Asia, after they had received the Faith and Baptisme of John, and were ignorant whether there were any holy Spirit yea or nay, Acts 19.2. Because Johns Faith and Baptisme (as I have formerly shewed) had no promise of giving the gifts of the holy Spirit, Mat. 3. Answ.

11. If they therefore ſhould continue in the Faith and Baptiſme they had received from Johh, they had no promiſe that waiting they ſhould receive the gift of the holy Spirit. But to the Faith and Baptiſme that Peter and the reſidue of the Apoſtles preached, there was a promiſe of giving the gifts of the holy Spirit, Acts 2.38. And when theſe twelve which had been baptized by Johh, or his Diſciples, heard it, they ſubmitted themſelves, and were baptized in the name of the Lord Jeſus; (viz. into that profeſſion of Faith Paul preached, 1 *Cor.*15.3,4.) And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the holy Spirit came upon them, and they ſpake with new tongues, and propheſied; and the men were about twelve, Acts 19.5,6. Such an inſtance likewiſe wee have in Samaria; Philip preaching the things concerning the Kingdome of God, and the name of Jeſus Chriſt,

Christ, and they were baptized both men and women, Act.8.12. When the Apostles which were at Hierusalem heard it, they sent Peter and John unto them: And when they were come down, they prayed, that they might receive the holy Spirit: (For as yet hee was fallen upon none of them, onely they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus) Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the holy Spirit, Acts 8.14,15,16,17. So that by the examination of these texts of holy Scripture, it appeareth to me, that these twelve that were formerly baptized by Iohn, and then afterwards by Paul were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus; and then the Lord according to his owne free promise, Acts 2.38. gave them the gifts of his holy Spirit, by his ordinance of Imposition of hands; that the earth might bee filled with his glory, and his Church repleniſhed with gifts meet for for the miniſtery, *Epheſ.*4. 11, 12.

Object. 3. But was Andrew and the other Diſciple Iohn baptized, Re-baptized by the Diſciples of Jeſus the Chriſt?

Anſw. Nay: Becauſe that Faith which Iohn preached and baptized into, and the Faith and Baptiſme that Jeſus and his Diſciples preached before his ſufferings, death and reſurrection, was all one in ſubſtance, and to one peculiar people, the Jewiſh Nation. *Mat.*3. 2. Iohn preached, Repent, for the kingdome of heaven is at hand. So did Jeſus, Mat. 4.17. Repent, for the kingdome of heaven is at hand. So Chriſt commanded the twelve, As yee goe, preach, ſaying, The kingdome of heaven is at hand, Mat. 10.7. Likewiſe the ſeventy, The kingdome of heaven is come nigh unto you, Luke 10.9. Peter and all the Diſciples were ignorant of the death and reſurrection of Chriſt, untill he was riſen from the dead, *Mar.*9.31, 32.

32. compared with *Luk.*24.6,7,8. They wait for the fulfilling of the promises as well as Iohns Disciples, Luke 24.19,20,21,22.

But were the twelve Disciples of Christ, and the seventy, *Luk.*10. that had accompanied with him from the time of Iohns Baptisme untill the time of Christs ascension into glory, that had been baptized, were they also Re-baptized after the death and resurrection of Christ? Object. 4.

The Answer is, Nay: Because they had the promise of the holy Spirit to be given them, without any more baptizing with water. Acts 1.5. Iohn truly baptized with water, but yee shall be baptized with the holy Spirit not many dayes hence. And the Lord made good his word of promise, they were filled with the holy Spirit, when the dayes of Pentecost were fully come, Acts 2.2,3, 4,5. Thus I have answered the Objections. Answ.

Because,

Reaſ. 7. Becauſe, If two Diſciples of Chriſt agree together in earth, touching any thing that they ſhall ask, they have promiſe it ſhall bee done for them of his Father in heaven, Mat. 18. 19. But there is no promiſe to any people in faith and order, but a people agreed: Reaſ. 1. Becauſe two cannot walk together unleſſe they be agreed, Amos 3.3. neither can the heart of two beleevers truly conſent to pray together, unleſſe they bee agreed touching the things they will ask of the Father of glory. Reaſ. 2. Difference of opinion cauſeth difference of affection, and is an occaſion of many deare and precious ſoules to withdraw communion; as is to be ſeen in Barnabas and Paul, diſſenting about the choyce of a companion, the contention grew ſo hot, that they ſeparated the one from the other, Acts 15.37,38,39,40.

Reaſ. 8. Two or three Diſciples of Chriſt,

Christ, gathered together in his name, (that is, by his power, authority, and royall Commission) where-soever, (whether in the mountaine, or in the desert, or in ship, or in the dungeon) there will Christ be in the midst of them, to heare and grant their petitions, or deliver them out of trouble; as he did Peter out of the prison, at the intercession of the Church, Act. 12.

To all such as walk in this Gospel faith and order, the Lord Jesus hath promised a greater manifestation of his presence, and Spirit, Joh. 14. 26. And John in the Island of Pathmos found it, Revel. 1. 9, 10. Yea, and to all them that love him and keep his commandements, the Father and the Sonne hath promised to owne their poor hearts to be his Temple and Palace, where hee will abide and dwell; Joh. 14. 23. Reas. 9.

Lastly, All such as are congregated Reas. 10.

gated in Gospel faith and order, have a promise from King Jesus, of Royall Protection in their greatest dangers, *Heb.*13.5,6. So that with the Prophet Habacuck they can glory in Christ, in their greatest extremities, *Hab.*3. 17,18. Though the vine doe not yeeld her fruit, and the fatnesse of the olive faile, and the herd perish from the stall; yet will I joy in the Lord, and rejoyce in the God of my salvation.

Quest. But is there any hope to see the Nation of England reformed according to the Primitive pattern, founded upon the word of the eternall Truth? *Ephes.*2.20.

Answ. Yea. First, Because there was never a more exact Covenant taken in no Realme, or Nation, since the dayes of zealous Josiah, 2 *Chron.*34. 31. and Nehemiah, *Nehem.*10.29. than is in these our dayes, to see a through Reformation in England and Ireland, according to the word of

of God; and to extirpate Popery, Prelacy, Superstition, Schisme, Heresie, in Doctrine, Worship, and Discipline; that the Lord should be one, and his Name one, in the three Kingdomes. So that we are not to leave so much as an hoofe behind us of any Superstition, or Romish relique, or any humane Tradition, in Gods worship, to be retained; though it have remained under the venerable garbe of Antiquity, Universality, and Unity, the three great pillars of the Roman Hierarchy.

Secondly, Because there are in the Synod some learned, pious, tender, conscientious men, that in the dayes of the cruell and ambitious Prelates (like the Priest and Levites, in the dayes of idolatrous Jeroboam, that served the Devils and the Calves hee made, 2 Chron. 11. 13, 14, 15.) left all their maintenance, and went and lived in a strange land, Reas. 2.

to enjoy the liberties of a good conſcience, and worſhip the Lord Jeſus according to the light they had received; that are at this day truly ſenſible, what a burden the Penall Statutes have beene in our Land, in former times, to tender conſciences, that deſire (without any ſiniſter ends) to ſee a Reformation according to Gods word therefore will never conſent to have ſuch a Penall Law enacted (as the Prelates of England once obtained by fraud and policy, in the dayes of Richard the Second to kill the Engliſh Subjects, that would declare the whole truth of God, ſo farre as it was revealed to them, and keep a good conſcience toward God and man: which occaſioned the death of ſome of the Nobility, Gentry, and Miniſters in the Nation; with many other of inferiour rank.

Thirdly, There are in the high nd honourable Court of Parliament, some such conscientious tener-hearted men, that in the Pre-ates dayes left, if not sold, their ossessions, to goe into a desolate ilderness, to worship the Lord esus in spirit and truth, according o the light God revealed unto hem; and many other were fol-owing after, that are truly sensile, that it hath ever been a plot f the Bishops and Priests to labour

o enthrall the English Nobility, nd Commons in Parliament, to nake Lawes to kill and imprison he conscientious in the Land, that oe desire to worship the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ in spirit and ruth, according to his revealed will n his owne word, under the spe-ious pretences of unity, and uni-ormity in the worship of God: as he Statutes of K. Henry 8. K. Edvard 6. Q. Mary, and Q. Elizabeth, eclare.

Fourthly, It is obvious to every well-affected Subject in the English Nation, that when our Brethren that noble, ancient, warlike Nation the Scots, contended for a Reformation according to the light they had received, and casting off Rome proud Papall and Prelaticall Government, with all their deviſed formes of Worſhip, they muſt have dyed; the Engliſh Prelates had ſo farre incenſed his Majeſty against them, and raiſed large ſummes of money toward the levying of an Army, to kill and deſtroy them had not the Lord by his ſpeciall providence prevented it.

Reaſ. 5. Fifthly, When the Lord opened the eyes of our deare and thrice noble Patriots of our Countrey aſſembled in Parliament, to make a ſolemne Proteſtation, to oppoſe all Popery and Popiſh innovations, and to extirpate Epiſcopacy root and branch, as a Plant that heavenly heavenly Father never planted; Then evill counsell prevailed with the King to withdraw from his Parliament, and under the pretence of a Guard to protect his Person, to make warre against his Parliament, that they should dye: But our faithfull Nobles, and true hearted Commons in England reply, Shall our Ionathans dye? who have in part freed our consciences from Roman Traditions, and ancient corrupt Festivals, and covenanted with us for a pure Reformation agreeable to the word of our good God, and have preserved our estates and liberties from an Arbitrary Government; shall they dye which have wrought such a deliverance in the Land? they shall not dye: we will bleed our selves before an haire shall fall from their heads, if either wee with our persons, prayers, counsells, states, or swords can prevent it. And hath the Lord given such a blessing to our endeavours, that God hath made the righteous of the Land, (next to the Lord) a wall of defence to the Parliament; shall it ever therefore enter into the heart of loyall and tender-hearted Covenantors to have such hard thoughts; that the Parliament will ever consent to burden us any longer with unjust Penall Statutes, who have thought nothing too deare for them, but have jeopardized lives and livelyhods for their preservations. Especially, they being sensible what a burden such penall Lawes have been to tender Consciences, and what an hinderance they are for propagating truth.

Reas. 6. Sixtly, All the faithfull in the Parliament know but in part; and the more they tast of the honey of Gods eternall truth, the more their eyes are enlightened to see, they have not as yet attained to a full Refor-

Reformation. And if now they should build but upon the least hay and stubble, they should not onely suffer losse; but lay a foundation of a new rent in the Ages and generations to come: yea, and looke what unjust Penall Statutes they impose now; may perhaps fall as heavy upon their Posterity, as sometime did upon that famous Lord Cobham, that gave his consent to the Statute of Lolordi, and afterward was put to death for a Lolord.

Seventhly, The Lord hath added such a blessing to the pious endeavours of the Parliament, that they have discovered many things to be truth; that the Learned Prelates in former times adjudged to be Heresies: As the parity of the Ministery. Superstitious formes of devised Worship, called Divine. Superstitious Festivals, formerly esteemed holy Feasts, now taken away, that men may follow their ho- Reas. 7.

us, and obeyed in all their just, Legall, and Civill commandements. Knowing, they carry not the Sword for nought, but for the punishment of them that doe evill, and for the praise, and defence of them that doe well.

Lastly, the wrondrous power of the Spirit of grace, in enlightning darke mindes with the knowledge of his Truth; and scattering the knowledge of it, all the Kingdome over, in Cities, Countreyes, and Campe, and causing men of singular parts of learning to bring their gifts toward the building up of Zion; and powring out of his Spirit (as Ioel the Prophet foretold, Ioel 2. 28.) upon all sorts of people, both young, and old; rich, and poore; which is to mee a plaine demonstration, that the Lord will never leave us, untill he hath made his new Jerusalem, the praise of the whole earth, and prepared the Spouſe, the Lambes wife; Yea, and advanced Jeſus the Chriſt once againe upon the Throne, to be the Head, King, Prieſt, and Prophet of his Church, according to the ancient Prophefie of David, Pſal. 2.6. Yet have I ſet my King upon my holy hill of Zion.

Gloria ſoli Deo.
